Thinking About Addiction Hyperbolic Discounting And Responsible Agency Social Philosophy:

Thinking about Addiction Craig Hanson, 2009 What is addiction Why do some people become addicted while others do not Is the addict rational In this book Craig Hanson attempts to answer these questions and more Using insights from the beginnings of philosophy to contemporary behavioral economics Hanson attempts to assess the variety of ways in which we can and cannot understand addiction Special consideration is given to a challenging and controversial proposal dubbed hyperbolic discounting Hanson proposes some modifications to the hyperbolic discounting view that permit it to explain not only addiction but also a variety of psychological maladies such as self deception Postethnophilosophy Sanya

Osha, 2011-04 This book makes a bold announcement for the beginning of a postethnophilosophical phase in modern African thought It re considers the question What is African philosophy and introduces a strategy for setting a broad and productive agenda for contemporary African philosophical thought A Lab of My Own Neena B. Schwartz, 2010-01-01 What was it like to be a woman scientist battling the old boy s network during the 1960s and 1970s Neena Schwartz a prominent neuroendocrinologist at Northwestern University tells all She became a successful scientist and administrator at a time when few women entered science and fewer succeeded in establishing independent laboratories She describes her personal career struggles and those of others in academia as well as the events which lead to the formation of the Association of Women in Science and Women in Endocrinology two national organizations which have been successful in increasing the numbers of women scientists and their influence in their fields The book intersperses this socio political story with an account of Schwartz s personal life as a lesbian and a description of her research on the role of hormones in regulating reproductive cycles In a chapter titled Don t Ask Don t Tell she examines the evidence from a scientist s point of view for the hormonal and genetic theories for homosexuality Other chapters provide advice on mentoring young scientists and a discourse on why it matters to all of us to have more women doing and teaching science She also describes the process of putting together an interdisciplinary Center on Reproductive Science at Northwestern which brought together basic and clinical scientists in an internationally recognized program of research and practice Beyond Perestroika Gary G. Gallop, 2009-01-01 This book investigates rapid societal change in Russia during the early 1990s The story of the anthropologist author and the people he studied reveals cultural similarities and differences between them Russians and Latvians taught the author about the Soviet Union its people and its cultures Formal axiology provides a novel way to access their changing values Reconstructing

Subjects Hakam H. Al-Shawi, 2011 Preliminary Material INTRODUCTION THE ISSUE INSIGHT AND SELF KNOWLEDGE RECONSTRUCTION AND ABSORPTION EPISTEMOLOGICAL ISSUES METAPHYSICAL ISSUES ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS CONCLUSION WORKS CITED ABOUT THE AUTHOR INDEX VIBS Values and Powers Krzysztof Piotr Skowroński, 2009-01-01 This book shows how much and in what sense values are related to powers and powers are related to values in American pragmatism The proposed re reading of American pragmatism will facilitate a novel understanding of it as a philosophical movement and by showing its truly humanistic democratic and pro social character the stronger impetus for current rethinking of values is being provided

Cutting Through the Surface, 2009-01-01 This book examines the role of philosophy and philosophers in bioethics Academics often see bioethical studies as too practical while decision makers tend to see them as too theoretical The purpose of this collection of new essays by an international group of distinguished scholars is to explore the troubled relationship between theory and practice in the ethical assessment of medicine health care and new medical and genetic technologies The book is divided into six parts In the first part philosophers consider the definition of bioethics the nature of applied ethics more generally and the possibility of combining utilitarian and liberal strands of thinking in moral and political studies In the second part authors discuss the place and justification of principles in bioethics and the significance of medical and nursing experience in moral decision making The third part addresses the complementary or contradictory as the case may be principles of dignity autonomy precaution and solidarity and their use in theoretical and practical settings In the fourth part public health measures and experimental research are defended against traditional moral concerns Part five scrutinizes parental responsibilities in bearing and rearing children especially the reasons for and against human reproduction in individual cases In part six enhancements to human nature by various means are analyzed Following in the footsteps of four previous collections in the Values in Bioethics special series by the same editorial team Scratching the Surface of Bioethics Bioethics and Social Reality Ethics in Biomedical Research and Arguments and Analysis in Bioethics this book compiled in honor of Professor Matti Häyry's 50th birthday drills into the core of the discipline to show the philosophical depths that lie under the polished surface of policy driven everyday bioethics

The Continuing Relevance of John Dewey Larry A. Hickman, 2011 The present volume encapsulates the contemporary scholarship on John Dewey and shows the place of Dewey's thought on the philosophical arena The authors are among the leading specialists in the philosophy of John Dewey from universities across the US and in Europe

Positive Peace Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2010 This book addresses positive peace In his introduction Arun Gandhi fifth grandson of Mahatma Gandhi asks For generations human beings have strived to attain peace but with little or no success Why is peace so illusive Twelve philosophers and educators suggest creatively and pragmatically that peace education has a large part of play in meeting the challenge

Book Jacket The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman, James Edwin Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham, 2010 An international journal of general philosophy

Economic Perspectives on Addiction Fritz L. Laux, Richard M. Peck, 2007 This paper provides an introduction with critical interpretations to the use of hyperbolic discounting as a model of behavior for the consumption of addictive goods The exponential and hyperbolic discounting models are carefully reviewed with particular emphasis on the implications for time consistency We then present a simple explanation of the logic of market failure resulting from internalities and the economic inefficiency that can result when time inconsistent choices have inter temporal impacts We then briefly review with commentary key work from the experimental and broader empirical literature that can be used to assess and critique the hyperbolic discounting model
