The Third Sector Delivering Public Services James Rees, David Mullins, 2016-07-26 This important book is the first edited collection to provide an up to date and comprehensive overview of the third sector s role in public service delivery Exploring areas such as social enterprise capacity building volunteering and social value the authors provide a platform for academic and policy debates on the topic Drawing on research carried out at the ESRC funded Third Sector Research Centre the book charts the historical development of the state third sector relationship and reviews the major debates and controversies accompanying recent shifts in that relationship It is a valuable resource for social science academics and postgraduate students as well as policymakers and practitioners in the public and third sectors in fields such as criminal justice health housing and social care

Building the Third Sector Daniel C. Levy, 2010-11-23 Winner of the 1997 ARNOVA Award for Distinguished Book in Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research The private third sector has largely displaced public universities and bureaucracies as Latin America's leaders in social science and related policy activities In many nations these private research centers have become the main workplace for intellectuals Mostly think tanks they are influential political institutions often making strong contribution to democratization The success of these research centers marks an unsurpassed triumph for international philanthropy but it also raises questions about the proper role and structural home for research and advanced study Levy shows how the centers success often undermine a region's struggling universities while failing themselves to fulfill higher education's fundamental mission Levy deals broadly with regional developments yet systematically identifies and analyzes the crucial subpatterns He integrates impressive empirical data with conceptual perspectives on nonprofit organizations comparative politics and comparative education as well as Latin American studies

Co-production Victor Pestoff, Taco Brandsen, 2013-09-13 Public management research has in recent years paid increasing attention to the third sector especially to its role in the provision of public services Evidence of this is the rising number of publications on the topic as well as a growing number of sessions and papers on the topic in academic conferences of the EGPA and IRSPM However much of the discussion on its role is motivated at least as much by ideology as by fact We still lack a proper empirical understanding of what happens when the third sector is drawn into public service provision In this thematic presentation of Co Production The Third Sector and the Delivery of Public Services we will try to enhance this understanding by presenting several new studies on the subject We also introduce the concepts of co production co management and co governance as a conceptual framework that enables us to better understand such developments
