The Anzaldúan Theory Handbook AnaLouise Keating, 2022-09-06 In The Anzaldúan Theory Handbook AnaLouise Keating provides a comprehensive investigation of the foundational theories, methods, and philosophies of Gloria E. Anzaldúa. Through archival research and close readings of Anzaldúa's unpublished and published writings, Keating offers a biographical intellectual sketch of Anzaldúa, investigates her writing process and theory-making methods, and excavates her archival manuscripts. Keating focuses on the breadth of Anzaldúa's theoretical oeuvre, including Anzaldúa's lesser-known concepts of autohistoria and autohistoria teórica, and other geographies of self and El Mundo Zurdo. By investigating those dimensions of Anzaldúa's theories, writings, and methods that have received less critical attention and by exploring the interconnections between these overlooked concepts and her better-known theories, Keating opens additional areas of investigation into Anzaldúa's work and models new ways to do Anzaldúan theory. This book also includes extensive definitions, genealogies, and explorations of eighteen key Anzaldúan theories, as well as an annotated bibliography of hundreds of Anzaldúa's unpublished manuscripts.

Identity Construction as a Spatiotemporal Phenomenon within Doctoral Students' Intellectual and Academic Identities Rudo F. Hwami, 2024-05-22 Investigating the interplay between space, time, and identity construction, this book brings to focus how spatiality and temporality have been largely overlooked in the study and theorisation of identity construction. Offering Gloria Anzaldúa's concept of conocimiento as a theoretical tool for analysing identity construction, the book investigates how doctoral students hold varying assumptions about their intellectual identity where the doctoral process enables them to deconstruct and reconstruct these identities. Chapters examine the implications for scholars who find themselves in the in-between space of transitional identities, advocating the need for innovative identity theorisation to strike a balance in the shifting dynamics between different presentations of identity and belief systems. Bringing together Lefebvre's theorisation of the relationship between space and the body in rhythmanalysis and Anzaldúa's theorisation of the relationship between the body and identity construction, the book offers a transdisciplinary reading of space, body, and identity. Providing a space to continue and progress the foregrounding of narratives from marginalised voices and groups in higher education, the book will be of interest to scholars, researchers, and academics in the fields of sociology of education, multicultural education, higher education, and philosophy of education.

Radiophonic Feminisms Esther Díaz Martín, 2025-08-12 How Latina voices in commercial radio and podcasting subvert cultural norms and bring feminism to the fore of their work? What does Latina feminism sound like in popular culture? Drawing on case studies of commercial radio programs and podcasts hosted by Latinas and oriented toward Latinx listenership, Esther Díaz Martín explores how Latina voices create female-specific aural spaces that interrupt the misogynist status quo in US mainstream media. Radiophonic Feminisms focuses on radio podcasting as a medium in which women find methods for resisting oppressive gendered cultural imaginaries. Through their specific articulations—that is, the quality of their voices, their music choices, and the soundscapes they construct Latina hosts since the early 1990s have offered feminist responses to a cultural moment marked by the demographic changes brought on by the political economy of migration and the social changes wrought by media in the digital age Drawing attention to the invisible antisexist work of creating sound and to its reception Diaz Mart n bridges the epistemic insights of Chicana feminist theory and sound studies enriching and further decolonizing our thinking about auditory meaning making
