applications The Message of Love Patrick Mitchel, 2019-09-19 Love such a deceptively simple and popular little word It is universally agreed that we need love to live and flourish as human beings and yet within our contemporary culture there are numerous confusing competing and evolving ideas about what love is There are few greater subjects in Christian theology than love yet it is a surprisingly complex and challenging concept to understand let alone live out faithfully Patrick Mitchel's conviction is that Christians need to be thinking about and practising love in compelling and authentic ways Our task is not only to articulate what love is but also to show to the world what true Christian love looks like in practice The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love Gal 5:6 NIV Mitchel's exposition explores love in the Old Testament how the love of God is supremely revealed in the mission and death of Jesus Christ love in the life and teaching of Jesus and the church's calling to be a community of love He helps us to grasp afresh the breadth depth scope and radically counter cultural nature of the Bible's teaching on love With a fully integrated study guide suitable for both individuals and groups The Message of Love will help you to see how the Bible's unified teaching on this vital theme can impact your life today

Star-Filled Grace Rachel Mann, 2015-11-06 A Star Filled Grace offers resources on beloved Advent and Christmas themes for churches ministers study groups and individuals at a time when there is a genuine interest in fresh ways of telling the Christmas stories In poetry liturgy and narrative Rachel Mann questions the cosy and sentimental view of the festive season and takes seriously the idea that God in Christ is born as a vulnerable outsider who transforms the world in radical ways Intended to be usable in a wide range of liturgical and study contexts this book revisits biblical voices characters and stories with a sophistication and simplicity that speaks to readers from a diversity of theological and spiritual perspectives Rachel Mann is an Anglican parish priest broadcaster and writer She is resident poet and minor canon at Manchester Cathedral Her work is widely published including two previous books The Risen Dust and Dazzling Darkness The Greatest, Most Amazing Love of All Alvaro A. Lockhart, 2016-04-08 I'm rich and I don't need a thing bragged the early Christians in the big city of Laodicea The Apostle John however saw their affluence and arrogance through a theological lens He declared them to be bankrupt lukewarm Christians whom God would gladly gargle and spit out Today the mainline church in the West finds itself in a dominant culture of Laodicean affluence where even faith is a commodity to be consumed While the gospel spreads and thrives in the global South and East the Western mainline church looks longingly back at Christendom and forward in fear As Christians living in a North American culture that highly prizes the unholy Trinity of individualism consumerism and secularism we require a new kind of missional leadership to pray attention to what God is doing in the world around us This book names the challenges and promises inherent in partnering with the Holy Spirit in order to offer missional leadership in a culture of affluence It is about both living in Laodicea and leaving it behind We are no longer in a Babylonian captivity but a Laodicean one This work helps chart a course for Christians who long to let go of country club religion and instead belong to a community that helps equip missionary disciples resistant to the dominant culture and resplendent in the love of our triune God A Complicated Love Story V.
