This Time We Knew Western Responses To Genocide In Bosnia:

This Time We Knew Thomas Cushman, Stjepan Gabriel Meštrović, 1996-10 This book punctures once and for all common excuses for Western inaction in the face of incontrovertible evidence of the most egregious crimes against humanity to occur in Europe since World War II
Genocide on the Drina River Edina Becirevic, 2014-07-29 Explores the widespread ethnic cleansing that occurred in Bosnia and Herzegovina from 1992 through 1995 war crimes and crimes against humanity committed by Serbs against Bosnian Muslims that fully meet the criteria for genocide established after World War II by the Genocide Convention of 1948 Contextualizes the East Bosnian program of atrocities with respect to broader scholarly debates about the nature of genocide Publishers website
Geography and Ethics James D. Proctor, David M. Smith, 2002-09-11 This book represents a landmark exploration of the common terrain of geography and ethics Drawing together specially commissioned contributions from distinguished geographers across the UK North America and Australasia the place of geography in ethics and of ethics in geography is examined through wide ranging thematic chapters Geography and Ethics is divided into four sections for discussion and exploration of ideas Ethics and Space Ethics and Place Ethics and Nature and Ethics and knowledge all of which point to the rich interplay between geography and moral philosophy or ethics

The Postmodern Challenge: Perspectives East and West, 2023-12-04 This volume is designed to bridge a gap in the current theoretical debate about the nature scope and relevance of postmodern perspectives in the humanist and social sciences in Eastern and Western Europe While the debate has been reasonably comprehensive and certainly abrasive in Western European and Anglophone countries it has signally failed to incorporate the viewpoints of Eastern European scholars and intellectuals Even the current appropriation of Mikhail Bakhtin as a prophet of the postmodern is paradoxically a monologic engagement with his thought rather than a dialogic encounter of cultures Doubtless different historical experiences ideology and social aspirations go some way to account for the weariness of Eastern Europe with postmodern challenge and its glad embrace by Western scholars The volume comprises some fifteen essays by leading historians literary theorists and social scientists from Western and Eastern Europe and America It has a threefold aim firstly to illuminate the distinctiveness of current Western and Eastern European theorizing about history and society secondly to reveal points of tension and disagreement and finally to open up a space for a meeting of seemingly incompatible worlds them as outlaw states We are Now a Nation Daphne N. Winland, 2007-01-01 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatsstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place Justice and Global Politics Ellen Frankel Paul, Fred D. Miller (Jr.), Jeffrey Paul, 2006 Since the end of the Cold War there has been increasing interest in the global dimensions of a host of public policy issues issues involving war and peace terrorism international law regulation of commerce environmental protection and disparities of wealth income and access to medical care Especially pressing is the question of whether it is possible to formulate principles of justice that are valid not merely within a single society but across national borders The thirteen essays in this volume explore a range of issues that are central to contemporary discussions of global politics Written by prominent philosophers political scientists economists and legal theorists they offer valuable contributions to current debates over the nature of justice and its implications for the development of international law and international institutions Balkan Babel Sabrina Petra Ramet, 2018-02-19 The fourth edition of this critically acclaimed work includes a new chapter a new epilogue and revisions throughout the book Sabrina Ramet a veteran observer of the Yugoslav scene traces the steady deterioration of Yugoslavia s political and social fabric in the years since 1980 arguing that while the federal system and multiethnic fabric laid down fault lines the final crisis was sown in the failure to resolve the legitimacy question triggered by economic deterioration and pushed forward toward war by Serbian politicians bent on power either within a centralized Yugoslavia or within an ethnically cleansed Greater Serbia With her detailed knowledge of the area and extensive fieldwork Ramet paints a strikingly original picture of Yugoslavia s demise and the emergence of the Yugoslav successor states Ethics, Nationalism, and Just War Henrik Syse, Gregory M Reichberg, 2007-09 At a time when moral questions about armed force are at the forefront of the public s attention this volume offers insight on current challenges related to war nationalism and justice Though recent publications on military ethics abound this work adds to the debate by considering the historical background of just war theory in the Middle Ages before going on to elucidating its contemporary challenges The book covers a wide range of topics and raises issues rarely touched on in the ethics of war literature such as environmental concerns and the responsibility of bystanders Following a general introduction by Henrik Syse and Gregory M Reichberg the book is divided into two main sections The first addresses the cradle of the modern idea of just war in medieval Latin Christianity The section discusses the relevance of medieval ideas to the modern setting and explains why the study of the medieval roots of just war thinking is so important even today It includes essays on Ambrose Augustine Thomas Aquinas Christine de Pizan and Geoffrey Chaucer not focusing however solely on the contributions of these writers but also providing an overall introduction to key concerns in medieval just war theorizing The second section of essays examines nationalism intervention preventive war war crimes and the environmental side effects of war All of these topics are treated within the relevant theoretical contexts thus providing a rich overview of the state of the debate While staying within the framework of a post 9 11 context and raising several issues of relevance to the discussion about terrorism this section also highlights several topics that have been overshadowed by the war on terror but which merit attention in their own right One of the most comprehensive works on the subject Ethics Nationalism and Just War is an important and accessible text for students and scholars alike Henrik Syse is a senior research fellow at the International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO Gregory M Reichberg also senior research fellow at PRIO heads the institute s program on Ethics Norms and Identities They are coeditors of The Ethics of War Classic and Contemporary Readings and have both published and taught widely on issues related to political thought and the ethics of armed force In addition to the editors contributors are J Peter Burgess Andreas F llesdal Kate L Forhan Phillip Gray Dieter Janssen James Turner Johnson James Meernik Gerson Moreno Riano Anne Julie Semb Dan Smith Arne Johan Vetlesen and John von Heyking PRAISE FOR THE BOOK A unique and significant contribution to the field of just war thinking The range and depth of the historical perspective and the precise applications to contemporary issues make it a truly useful collection of essays This book has the potential to be the state of the art comprehensive book on just war John P Hittinger University of St Thomas Houston A superb collection of essays Readers will find both deep historical grounding for the just war tradition in late Hellenistic and Medieval writers and essays on pressing contemporary issues of the environmental impact of war the status of non combatants in modern war the moral and legal status of the nation state and international institutions such as the UN and the theory and practice of preventive war Martin L Cook U S Air Force Academy P acked with great ideas and provocative discussion This is an excellent addition to the field and to any just war related library William Kautt Journal of Military History E xcellent In approaching the just war tradition in this manner the authors and editors of this volume have recovered something of that tradition s diversity and vitality B y emphasizing the protean nature and op

Emotions and Crime Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Sandra Walklate, 2019-06-11 In spite of the fact that crime is an emotive topic the question of emotion has been largely overlooked in criminological research which has tended instead to examine criminal conduct in terms of structural background variables or rational decision making Building on research into emotions within sociology this book seeks to show how criminologists can in fact take emotions seriously and why criminology needs to begin considering emotions as a central element of its theoretical conceptual and methodological apparatus Thematically organised and presenting both empirical and theoretical studies Emotions and Crime pays attention to the different emotional dimensions of crime victimhood the criminal justice system the practice of criminological research and the discipline of criminology Bringing together the work of an international team of authors and discussing research into violence punishment gender imprisonment and mass atrocity this volume shows how crime and emotions are inextricably connected and illustrates both the hidden and pervasive role of emotions in criminological work

Kosovo Between War and Peace Tonny Brems Knudsen, Carsten Bagge Laustsen, 2006-08-21 A major contribution to the debate about the reconstruction of Kosovo and to the general discussion surrounding the revived trusteeship institution model in the context of the UN internationalism of the 1990s and the War on Terror following 9 11 Bringing together leading international scholars this book presents the latest empirical research alongside detailed theoretical analysis Examining the key questions local parties and the international community have encountered in Kosovo including how to develop effective and inclusive local government how to counter crime and the dysfunctional aspects of liberal economic reform how to unite the partly opposed goals of reconstructing the province while avoiding renewed ethnic and international strife and how to handle the specific challenge of Kosovo's future status The contributors also re-examine the background factors that continue to influence and hamper the attempt to administrate and reconstruct the province first of all the nationalist ideologies and the record of ethnic violence This book will be of great interest to all students of Balkan politics peacekeeping international relations and security studies in general

This Thing Called the World Debjani Ganguly, 2016-07-21 In This Thing Called the World Debjani Ganguly theorizes the contemporary global novel and the social and historical conditions that shaped it Ganguly contends that global literature

coalesced into its current form in 1989 an event marked by the convergence of three major trends the consolidation of the information age the arrival of a perpetual state of global war and the expanding focus on humanitarianism Ganguly analyzes a trove of novels from authors including Salman Rushdie Don DeLillo Michael Ondaatje and Art Spiegelman who address wars in Iraq Afghanistan and Sri Lanka the Palestinian and Kashmiri crises the Rwandan genocide and post9 11 terrorism These novels exist in a context in which suffering s presence in everyday life is mediated through digital images and where authors integrate visual forms into their storytelling In showing how the evolution of the contemporary global novel is analogous to the European novel s emergence in the eighteenth century when society and the development of capitalism faced similar monumental ruptures Ganguly provides both a theory of the contemporary moment and a reminder of the novel s power

Stripping Bare the Body Mark Danner,2009-10-13 For the past two decades Mark Danner has reported from Latin America Haiti the Balkans and the Middle East His perceptive award winning dispatches have not only explored the real consequences of American engagement with the world but also the relationship between political violence and power In Stripping Bare the Body Danner brings together his best reporting from the world s most troubled regions from the fall of the Duvalier dictatorship in Haiti to the tumultuous rise of Aristide from the onset of the Balkan Wars to the painful fragmentation of Yugoslavia and finally to the disastrous invasion of Iraq and the radical destructive legacy of the Bush administration At a time when American imperial power is in decline there has never been a more compelling moment to read these urgent fiercely intelligent reports

The Intellectual Species John Rodden,2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of international intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens
