This Way For The Gas Ladies And Gentlemen Penguin Classics:

This Way for the Gas, Ladies and Gentlemen Tadeusz Borowski, 1992-08-01 Tadeusz Borowski's concentration camp stories were based on his own experiences surviving Auschwitz and Dachau. In spare brutal prose he describes a world where where the will to survive overrides compassion and prisoners eat work and sleep a few yards from where others are murdered where the difference between human beings is reduced to a second bowl of soup an extra blanket or the luxury of a pair of shoes with thick soles and where the line between normality and abnormality vanishes. Published in Poland after the Second World War these stories constitute a masterwork of world literature. For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world. With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators. Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm), 2001
