interested in sharing the gospel with Catholic friends or understanding where members of that denomination stand on important points of theology will appreciate this thorough yet easy to use reference Using the simple step by step format applauded by readers in Rhodes previous books Reasoning from the Scriptures with Catholics covers many theological issues that divide Protestants and Catholics including purgatory and indulgences the reverence of Mary mother of Jesus papal infallibility Catholic traditions and much more Each chapter examines a single Catholic belief or practice as taught in the Catholic Catechism and other major Catholic sources provides biblical responses and offers questions to help Catholics examine their church s readings Pastors teachers and lay leaders will find this insightful guide a must have tool for sharing the good news of salvation by faith alone with Catholic friends and family members The Forge of Vision David Morgan,2015-10-27 Religions teach their adherents how to see and feel at the same time learning to see is not a disembodied process but one hammered from the forge of human need social relations and material practice David Morgan argues that the history of religions may therefore be studied through the lens of their salient visual themes The Forge of Vision tells the history of Christianity from the sixteenth century through the present by selecting the visual themes of faith that have profoundly influenced its development After exploring how distinctive Catholic and Protestant visual cultures emerged in the early modern period Morgan examines a variety of Christian visual practices ranging from the imagination visions of nationhood the likeness of Jesus the material life of words and the role of modern art as a spiritual quest to the importance of images for education devotion worship and domestic life An insightful informed presentation of how Christianity has shaped and continues to shape the modern world this work is a must read for scholars and students across fields of religious studies history and art history Conviction Without Compromise Norman Geisler, Ron Rhodes, 2008 From the earliest days of the church Christians have struggled with questions related to unity and the handling of doctrinal differences In this book you will find clear guidance from Scripture about the doctrines on which it is essential for Christians to agree and the doctrines on which believers can graciously agree to disagree This landmark resource will equip you to take an uncompromising stand on the essentials of the faith while promoting love and unity among true believers Book jacket American Journal of Theology, 1913 Vols 2-6 include Theological and Semitic literature for 1898-1901 a bibliographical supplement to the American journal of theology and the American journal of Semitic languages and literatures By W Muss Arnolt Separately paged The American Journal of Theology University of Chicago.
