The Historical and Musical Correlation of "The Southern Harmony and Musical Companion" with Donald Grantham's "Southern Harmony". Paul Gordon Davis,2006 Five hymn tunes from Walker s book are used for the basis of this four movement composition In the first three movements Grantham sets hymns that are intertwined with his own newly composed material Two hymn tunes are integrated again with Grantham s original material to create a modified rondo form for the last movement Each hymn tune is briefly presented and surveyed followed by a formal and motivic analysis of each movement from the work Finally performance considerations are then regarded for each movement The Southern Harmony and Musical Companion William 1809-1875 Walker,B F (Benjamin Franklin) 180 White,2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant
