The Sovereignty Of Quiet Beyond Resistance In Black Culture:

The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie, 2012-07-25 African American culture is often considered expressive dramatic and even defiant In The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie explores quiet as a different kind of expressiveness one which characterizes a person's desires ambitions hungers vulnerabilities and fears Quiet is a metaphor for the inner life and as such enables a more nuanced understanding of black culture The book revisits such iconic moments as Tommie Smith and John Carlos's protest at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics and Elizabeth Alexander's reading at the 2009 inauguration of Barack Obama Quashie also examines such landmark texts as Gwendolyn Brooks's Maud Martha James Baldwin's The Fire Next Time and Toni Morrison's Sula to move beyond the emphasis on resistance and to suggest that concepts like surrender dreaming and waiting can remind us of the wealth of black humanity The Disturbing Profane Joseph R.

Winters, 2025-07-04 Joseph R Winters explores how hip hop troubles notions of the sacred and the profane arguing that it opens up its audience to a volatile notion of the sacred and the unruly qualities of Blackness The Politics of Kinship

Mark Rifkin, 2024-01-29 What if we understood the idea of family as central to representing alternative forms of governance as expressions of racial deviance In The Politics of Kinship Mark Rifkin shows how ideologies of family including notions of kinship recast Indigenous and other forms of collective self organization and self determination as disruptive racial tendencies in need of state containment and intervention Centering work in Indigenous studies Rifkin illustrates how conceptions of family and race work together as part of ongoing efforts to regulate assault and efface other political orders The book examines the history of anthropology and its resonances in contemporary queer scholarship contemporary Indian policy from the 1970s onward the legal history of family formation and privacy in the United States and the association of blackness with criminality across US history In this way Rifkin seeks to open new possibilities for envisioning what kinds of relations networks and formations can and should be seen as governance on lands claimed by the United States For the Sake of Peace Charles L. Chavis Jr., Sixte Vigny Nimuraba, 2020-06-23 For the Sake of Peace examines racism and injustice in the United States through the eyes of those of African descent Historically America has promoted itself as the moral police promoting democracy across the globe offering her perspectives and ideas to combat poverty and racial and ethnic violence The rise of overt political racism and intolerance has made visible for a global audience for the first time since the Civil Rights Movement the deeply rooted systems of discrimination and identity based conflicts in the United States that gives rise to structural and direct violence African Americans like other minorities find themselves in a unique position in this age as new forms of race lynching continue to go unchecked voting rights continue to be suppressed prisons continue to serve as a mechanism for disenfranchising minorities and the poor This volume centers around an understanding of peace that is concerned with justice and racial equality Highlighting the prevailing impact of anti black racism and injustice authors offer prescriptive and descriptive insight that will aid in understanding and overcoming these historical and contemporary obstacles to peace focusing on specific themes including civil rights education white supremacy structural violence ritual reparations and human rights Interdisciplinary in perspective the essays are written by leading and emerging scholars activists and practitioners from the viewpoints of history conflict analysis and resolution anthropology ethics theology and philosophy A foreword by The Rev Canon Nontombi Naomi Tutu daughter of Nobel Peace Prize winner Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Cathedral Missioner for Racial and Economic Equity at The Cathedral of All Souls in Ashville NC highlights the importance of Africana perspectives in the global pursuit of peace and equality

Art and Dance in Dialogue Sarah Whatley, Imogen Racz, Katerina Paramana, Marie-Louise Crawley, 2020-11-07 This interdisciplinary book brings together essays that consider how the body enacts social and cultural rituals in relation to objects spaces and the everyday and how these are questioned explored and problematised through and translated into dance art and performance The chapters are written by significant artists and scholars and consider practices from various locations including Central and Western Europe Mexico and the United States The authors build on dialogues between for example philosophy and museum studies and memory studies and post humanism and engage with a wide range of theory from phenomenology to relational aesthetics to New Materialism Thus this book represents a unique collection that together considers the continuum between everyday and cultural life and how rituals and memories are inscribed onto our being It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners students and teachers and particularly those who are curious about the intersections between arts disciplines

Mack Hagood, 2019-02-14 For almost sixty years media technologies have promised users the ability to create sonic safe spaces for themselves from bedside white noise machines to Beats by Dre s Hear What You Want ad campaign in which Colin Kaepernick s headphones protect him from taunting crowds In Hush Mack Hagood draws evidence from noise canceling headphones tinnitus maskers LPs that play ocean sounds nature sound mobile apps and in ear smart technologies to argue the true purpose of media is not information transmission but rather the control of how we engage our environment These devices which Hagood calls orphic media give users the freedom to remain unaffected in the changeable and distracting spaces of contemporary capitalism and reveal how racial gendered ableist and class ideologies shape our desire to block unwanted sounds In a noisy world of haters trolls and information overload guarded listening can be a necessity for self care but Hagood argues our efforts to shield ourselves can also decrease our tolerance for sonic and social difference Challenging our self defeating attempts to be free of one another he rethinks media theory sound studies and the very definition of media

Filling the Head Rayya El Zein, 2025-06-03 When asked what drew them to experimental Arabic language rap performers and fans shared a common refrain various artists or tracks filled their head abba rasshom offering relief from their dissatisfaction cynicism resignation and disgust with contemporary politics and society Based on ethnographic research in Ramallah Palestine Amman Jordan and Beirut Lebanon Filling the Head reveals how youths in these cities have maneuvered the challenges of making music while also navigating shifting geopolitical landscapes Through these everyday experiences of being moved by music or ideas Rayya El Zein explores how ordinary patterns of motion and emotion provide a space for political engagement when spectacular political movements like protests strikes or revolutions feel far away forced or otherwise impossible In contrast to existing narratives that equate rap with popular political resistance against oppressive regimes she argues instead for affective engagement through istifzaz provocation or surprise as well as yearning Within this avant garde genre there is no design to reach the masses with a political message in fact as El Zein demonstrates the refusal of artists to confine their lyrical or musical experimentation to an ethos of resistance creates an aesthetic whose lack of singular politics defines it Threading reflections from fans rappers DJs producers and venue owners with thick descriptions of live concerts and mediated listening practices Filling the Head offers new insights into what it means politically to be moved

CLA Journal ,2016 Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie,2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Prayer ,2021-12-16 The essays collected in this volume provide a resource for thinking theologically about the practice of Christian prayer In the first of four parts the volume begins by reaching back to the biblical foundations of prayer Then each of the chapters in the second part investigates a classical Christian doctrine including God creation Christology pneumatology providence and eschatology from the perspective of prayer The chapters in the third part explore the writings of some of the great theorizers of prayer in the history of the Christian tradition The final part gathers a set of creative and critical conversations on prayer responding to a variety of contemporary issues Overall the T T Clark Handbook of Christian Prayer articulates a theologically expansive account of prayer one that is deeply biblical energetically doctrinal historically rooted and relevant to a whole host of critical questions and concerns facing the world today The Western Journal of Black Studies ,1998 Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2005 Feminist Collections ,1993 Working Papers for a New Society ,1977 Africa ,2001 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books The Cumulative Book Index ,1979 A world list of books in the English language The Christian Science Monitor Index ,2001 Canadian Books in Print ,1998 Far Eastern Economic Review ,1987-04 Asia s premier business magazine The magazine reports on politics
