The Politics of Art, Death and Refuge Helen Hintjens, 2022-12-08 This book deals in different ways with the politics of death with art and politics and with the politics of refuge and asylum Cutting across these fields brings to the fore the fluid quality of social life under late capitalism The elements of time space and emotion are part of the overall approach adopted The individual chapters illustrate themes of despair striving and the politics of hope and bring out the fluid and unpredictable qualities of social life The guiding metaphor is fluidity or what Urry refers to as waves continuous flow pulsing fluidity and viscosity characteristic of life death refuge and art under the contemporary global system Between the worlds of culture political violence and art the interconnected themes in this study illuminate conditions of liminality or in betweenness The study presents a politics of hope under late capitalism and cuts through more usual boundaries between art and science harm and help death and the politics of bare life Each chapter grapples with issues that help illustrate wider trends in Global Development and International Relations scholarship and teaching Amidst growing cynicism about human or even humanitarian values the volume appeals for a politics of hope and social justice based on the fluid contours of borderless and amorphous processes of self organising and radical anarchy

Scandalous Times Alex Ling, 2020-10-15 We live in scandalous times Every day some new controversy demands our attention our emotional investment and ultimately our judgment Many of these routine transgressions will be understood in revelatory terms as peeling back the multiple layers of artifice and spin to reveal an underlying and oftentimes disturbing truth Others will be recognized as calculated marketing exercises that simply present the strategic face of contemporary capitalism Yet these ordinary scandals can themselves be seen to be largely derivative of another altogether more fundamental and fundamentally rare form of disruption Such is the real scandal that accompanies instances of authentic creation Building on the philosophy of Alain Badiou Scandalous Times not only argues the case for such real scandal but also shows how it is today being abrogated and substituted through the increasing production of novel forms of state sanctioned controversy From Duchamp to Donald Trump Scandalous Times explores the ways in which areas from art and advertising to politics and social media have come to actively contribute to this static fabrication of controversy all the while arguing for the need to rethink creativity as a radical exception to the state and not its proxy

L'Auberge espagnole Ben McCann, 2018-05-11 Part romantic comedy part sitcom part social drama L'Auberge espagnole The Spanish Apartment recounts a familiar youth ritual the move from university to the real world the often complicated personal romantic and cultural encounters that ensue and the moral uncertainties that characterize that key biological and physiological developmental stage between adolescence and adulthood French director C dric Klapisch showcases the extraordinary colour and beauty of Barcelona s architecture and places his hero Xavier at the heart of this smartly written film which makes a series of wry observations on educational exchange programmes multi culturalism and the direction European youth might take in the twenty first century This book addresses the topic of Europe s youth generation paying particular attention to the ways in which the film depicts the transition from adolescence to adulthood as allegory for the experiences of European society as it moves through periods of readjustment towards uncertain futures It also looks into the ecosystem of contemporary French cinema the Erasmus programme and its influence on youth experience and identity politics in relation to nationhood and European ness The book also examines the two sequels to the film Russian Dolls 2005 and Chinese Puzzle 2013 and how the complications faced by the main characters across the trilogy suggest that the move to adulthood is a never ending process of growing up and reaching a level of self actualization Elizabeth Harrower Nicholas Birns, Megan Nash, Ivor Indyk, Michelle de Kretser, Fiona McFarlane, Elizabeth Webby, Brigid Rooney, Julian Murphet, Kate Livett, 2017-09-28

Elizabeth Harrower Critical Essays is the first sustained study of this acclaimed Australian author It brings together two celebrated novelists and ten noted critics of Australian literature to consider the legacy and continuing importance of this major literary figure The essays examine all of Harrower s published fiction from her first short story to the long delayed publication of In Certain Circles in 2014 Together they provide a wide ranging introduction to the extraordinary imaginative and intellectual project of her work They explore her engagement with twentieth century history and post war society with modernism and modernity and with the personal impacts of mass media technology and industry They demonstrate her grasp of the ethical and philosophical challenges confronting her readers and characters in late modernity as seen from a number of distinctive vantage points including the harbourside mansions and commercial centres of post war Sydney the suburbs of industrial Newcastle and the bed sitters of expatriate London in the 1960s Together they offer new insights into an Australian writer at the crossroads of modernism and postmodernism inviting readers to read and re engage with Harrower s work in a new light Women Art Dealers Véronique Chagnon-Burke, Caterina Toschi, 2023-12-14 Women Art Dealers brings together fascinating case studies of galleries run by women between the 1940s and 1980s It marks a departure from other work in the field of art markets challenging male dominated histories by analyzing the work of female dealers who anticipated the global model worked to promote art across continents and thus developed an international art market Part 1 focuses on the women gallerists behind the promotion of modern art after World War II who participated in important research about the neo Avant Garde Part 2 examines the contributions by women art dealers toward the birth of new markets through establishing the reputation of artistic genres such as video art and photography and working at the forefront of advancing contemporary art Finally Part 3 analyzes case studies from the southern European art scene paying fresh attention to several under researched markets in the region like Italy and Portugal Each chapter study provides a historiographic profile of the gallery under discussion and critical analysis is supported with a wide range of visual material including portraits of the women art dealers photographs of the exhibitions they managed and printed documentation like catalogues invitations and posters that were often used to support artists on display in experimental ways

The Music of Time John Burnside, 2019-10-03 A Financial Times Book of the Year Though we might not realise it our collective memory of the twentieth century was defined by the poets who lived and wrote in it At every significant turning point we find them pen in hand fingers poised at the typewriter ready to distil the essence of the moment from the muddy wastes of the Western front to the vast reckoning that came with the end of empire This is the first and only history of twentieth century poetry by the acclaimed poet author and academic John Burnside Bringing together poets from times and places as diverse as Tsarist Russia 1960 s America and Ireland at the height of the Troubles The Music of Time reveals how poets engaged with and shaped the most important issues of their times and were in their turn affected by their context and dialogue with each other This is a major work of scholarship that on every page bears witness to the transformative beauty and power of poetry
