Question: "What is the Spirit of adoption? What is the meaning of Romans 8:15?"

Answer: Romans 8:15 says, "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, 'Abba! Father!'" (KJV). This verse contrasts two spirits: an impersonal "spirit of bondage" or "spirit of slavery" and the Holy Spirit, called here "the Spirit of adoption." Other translations render the phrase the Spirit of adoption as "God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children" (NLT), "the Spirit makes you God's children" (CEV), or "a Spirit that shows you are adopted as his children" (CJB).

Two different spirits. Two different mindsets that we can have in our approach to God: we can approach Him as slaves in bondage, or we can approach Him as adopted children. The Bible presents a high view of adoption and uses it to parallel the relationship God wants to have with us. The spirit of slavery views God as a slave owner and see His trembling subjects. The spirit of adoption views God as a loving Father and see His beloved sons and daughters.

Petrus van Mastricht's Theoretical Practical Theology presents one of the most comprehensive methods of treating Christian doctrine. In it, Mastricht treats every theological topic according to a four-part approach: exegetical, dogmatic, elenctic, and practical. As a body of divinity, it combines a rigorous scholastic treatment of doctrine with the pastoral aim of preparing people to live for God through Christ. Students and pastors will find it a valuable model for moving from the text of Scripture to doctrinal formulation that will edify the people of God. Volume 5, The Application of Redemption and the Church, examines how the covenantal grace procured by Jesus Christ touches all who experience union and communion with Him in faith. Mastricht's outline of the personal application of redemption embraces calling, regeneration, conversion, union with Christ, justification, adoption, sanctification, and glorification. This is followed with the context of that application: treating the nature of the church, its ministers, its sacraments, church discipline, and church governance. This volume helps us understand the significance of personal salvation and Christ's assembly of the saved: a fascinating look at the redemptive connection between soteriology and ecclesiology. The Works of John Cotton, Volumes 1-5 John Cotton, 2025-11-13 John Cotton shaped the doctrine, worship, and discipline of a fledgling society striving to live fully under God's Word. With clarity, conviction, and pastoral warmth, he addressed both the great ecclesiastical questions and the intimate personal wrestlings of his time. The Works of John Cotton gathers his most important treatises and sermons in a newly edited, cloth-bound set. It recovers a vital link in the chain of Reformed thought and reintroduces a voice that helped shape the American church before it had a name.

New Life in the Risen Christ Jonathan A. Powers, 2023-05-26 Baptism is a foundational rite and sacrament of the church. Over the centuries, the significance of baptism for Christian life and faith has been confirmed by the church, but baptism remains a highly controversial topic. Numerous disagreements exist between denominations and faith traditions, including the various descendants of the original Methodist movement, over the doctrine and practice of baptism: Who can be baptized? Why is baptism done? What does the rite mean? New Life in the Risen Christ: A Wesleyan Theology of Baptism seeks to address confusion over baptism and offer a coherent treatment of the sacrament from a Wesleyan theological perspective. Distinguished scholars from around the world are brought together in this volume to examine the writings of John Wesley.
