Implementing EU Mobility Partnerships Fanny Tittel-Mosser, 2020-06-08 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of the effectiveness of Mobility Partnerships and their consequences for third countries Mobility partnerships between the EU and third countries are usually viewed as reflecting asymmetric power relations where development aid trade relations and visa policies are made conditional upon the cooperation by third countries with an EU agenda of migration control This book argues that three main factors condition the relevance of Mobility Partnerships the state of relations between EU Member States and a third country and in particular the role of postcolonial ties the power of negotiation of a third country which is linked to its geopolitical importance for the EU and its administrative capacity which is understood as the capacity of a state to define and implement policies and to legislate and enforce the law The work combines a comparative legal analysis of the development of the legal and policy frameworks in the cases of Morocco and Cape Verde with an empirical study of the implementation of Mobility Partnerships projects The analysis demonstrates that Mobility Partnerships despite their non binding nature have legal and policy relevance for these third countries with regard to the regulation of migration asylum human trafficking and even labour law As such this book makes a contribution to the understanding of the interplay between the interests of EU Member State and third country actors in the implementation of the Mobility Partnerships The book will be a key resource for academics and students focusing on Migration Law EU Studies Geopolitics and African Studies The empirical approach will also appeal to policy makers international organisation representatives and NGOs

Shia Islam and Politics Jon Armajani, 2020-05-20
This book argues that ever since Iran's Islamic Revolution in 1979 which established a Shia Islamic government in Iran that country's religious and political leaders have used Shia Islam as a crucial way of expanding Iran's objectives in the Middle East and beyond Since 1979 Iran's religious and political leaders have been concerned about Iran's security in the face of the hostility and expansionism of the United States and other western countries and the threats from powerful neighboring Sunni leaders and countries While Iran's government has attempted to align itself with Shia Muslims in various countries such as Iraq and Lebanon against American and Sunni expansionism the Iranian government has attempted to religiously nourish and politically mobilize those Shias as a matter of principle not only because of the Iranian government's desires to protect Iran from external threats The book analyzes Shia Islam and politics in Iran Iraq and Lebanon which have among the largest proportional Shia populations in the Middle East and are vibrant centers of Shia intellectual life The book's clear and jargon free approach make it especially accessible for students and general readers who would like an introduction to the book's topics
