The Stone Virgins A Novel:

The Stone Virgins Yvonne Vera, 2004-02-14 Winner of the Macmillan Prize for African Adult Fiction An uncompromising novel by one of Africa's premiere writers detailing the horrors of civil war in luminous haunting prose In 1980 after decades of guerilla war against colonial rule Rhodesia earned its hard fought for independence from Britain Less than two years thereafter when Mugabe rose to power in the new Zimbabwe it signaled the beginning of brutal civil unrest that would last nearly a half decade more With The Stone Virgins Yvonne Vera examines the dissident movement from the perspective of two sisters living in a small township outside of Bulawayo In a portrait painted in successive impressions of life before and after the liberation Vera explores the quest for dignity and a centered existence against a backdrop of unimaginable violence the twin instincts of survival and love the rival pulls of township and city life and mankind's capacity for terror beauty and sacrifice One sister will find a reason for hope One will not make it through alive Weaving historical fact within a story of grand passions and striking endurance Vera has gifted us with a powerful and provocative testament to the resilience of the Zimbabwean people

Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country's liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity Africa Writes Back to Self Evan M. Mwangi, 2010-07-02 The profound effects of colonialism and its legacies on African cultures have led postcolonial scholars of recent African literature to characterize contemporary African novels as first and foremost responses to colonial domination by the West In Africa Writes Back to Self Evan Maina Mwangi argues instead that the novels are primarily engaged in conversation with each other particularly over emergent gender issues such as the representation of homosexuality and the disenfranchisement of women by male dominated governments He covers the work of canonical novelists Nadine Gordimer Chinua Achebe Ngu gi wa Thiong o and J M Coetzee as well as popular writers such as Grace Ogot David Maillu Promise Okekwe and Rebeka Njau Mwangi examines the novels self reflexive fictional strategies and their potential to refigure the dynamics of gender and sexuality in Africa and demote the West as the reference point for cultures of the Global South

issue of African Literature Today is devoted to studies of how African writers as historical witnesses have handled the recreation of war as a cataclysmic phenomenon in various locations on the continent The theoretical question is whether the fictionalized representation demonstrated equitable balance between socio political messages lessons of war and the sanctity of art aesthetics Contributors have explore the subject from a variety of perspectives panoramic regional national and through comparative studies Was has enriched contemporary African literature but at what price to human lives peace and the environment Publisher s description The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe ,2025-04-07 Zimbabwe is a country whose longer past and shifting post independence politics have both included violent histories as well as often violent contestations over history itself The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe addresses the many ways in which pasts are variously experienced remembered claimed denied or contested by differently positioned actors and how this in turn shapes the politics of the present It explores how such contestation is expressed in literature art and the media through exhumations and reburials in state apology and political myth making and in both traditional cultural heritage sites and the making of new national symbols Contributors are Jocelyn Alexander Elleke Boehmer Shadreck Chirikure Simbarashe Shadreck Chitima Lena Englund Shari Eppel Petina Gappah Amanda Hammar Pedzisai Maedza Owen Maseko Mphathisi Ndlovu Minna Johanna Niemi Astrid Rasch Timothy Scarnecchia Thomas Thondhlana Katja Uusihakala African Oral Story-telling Tradition and the Zimbabwean Novel in English Maurice Taonezvi Vambe,2004 This study presents a break with previous literary criticism that has vilified orality in an effort to understand the interface between orality and the black Zimbabwean novel It traces the ways in which the African oral story telling tradition has survived within the black Zimbabwean novel in English The author critically analyses the works of eight leading Zimbabwean creative writers revealing how they have used oral story telling traditions in their literature He argues that throughout the colonisation liberation and post independence periods African orature was and remains a mode of expressing resistance to authoritarian ideas and cultural dominance and a social vision The novels of Alexandre Dumas, tr. by A. Allinson [and others]. Alexandre Dumas,1904 The Novels of Charles Lever Charles Lever,1904 Sign and Taboo Robert Muponde,Mandivavarira Maodzwa-Taruvinga,2003 Yvonne Vera s Nehanda 1993 signaled the presence of new and remarkable writing in Zimbabwe and her four subsequent novels have confirmed her stature as one of the most important African novelists of the 1990s Her art is alert to public life and manifests the decisive moments of Zimbabwe s anticolonial resistance the growth of the township culture and the competing demands of the city and the rural home She records public experience through the consciousness of her female characters but in prose as densely allusive as poetry does not allow her style to register with a conventional realism her characters always experiencing more than they understand and seeing more than they and the reader may recognize This work brings together critics from Zimbabwe South Africa Britain the Caribbean and the United States demonstrating through a diversity of approaches the complex beauty of Vera s work It shows how Vera expanded the formal possibilities of the African novel by placing the experiences of women at the center of literature and in so doing retold and recreated Zimbabwe's history and imaginative life
