

A person is captured in mid-stride, running along a sandy beach towards the ocean. They are wearing a vibrant, multi-colored sarong that flows around their waist. The scene is set during sunset or sunrise, with the low sun creating a warm, golden glow and a rainbow-like reflection on the wet sand. The ocean waves are visible in the background under a clear sky.

"Like the best summer vacation—

The Summer House Philip Teir, 2018-07-12 The light greenery of the early summer is trembling around Erik and Julia as they shove their children into the car and start the drive towards the house by the sea on the west coast of Finland where they will spend the summer From the outside they are a happy young family looking forward to a long holiday together But look under the surface and their happiness shows signs of not lasting the summer On the eve of the holiday Erik lost his job but hasn't yet told the family And the arrival of Julia's childhood friend Marika along with her charismatic husband Chris the leader of a group of environmental activists that have given up hope for planet Earth and are returning to a primitive lifestyle deepens the hairline cracks that had so far remained invisible Around these people over the course of one summer Philip Teir weaves a finely tuned story about life choices and lies about childhood and adulthood How do we live if we know that the world is about to end

The Summer Friend Charles McGrath, 2023-06-13 Alive with the intoxicating magic of summer in New England former editor of the New York Times Book Review Charles McGrath's evocative memoir looks back at that sun-soaked season at family youth and a singular bond made at a time when he thought he was beyond making friends Sun-drenched and deeply touching The New York Times Positively aches with beauty and loss Richard Russo Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Empire Falls It was early evening and a new acquaintance had come to retrieve his daughter from a play date Instead of driving up in a minivan he arrived by water tacking his sailboat smartly across a squiggly channel in the marsh throwing a rope overboard and zipping back home his gleeful daughter riding in the wake Who knew you could do such a thing And how could you resist befriending a man such as that Over the course of this rich memoir McGrath recalls with a gimlet eye the pleasures of summers past amateur lobstering 9 hole golf family costume charades bridge jumping and a friendship forged between two men from different backgrounds who came together late in life Recounting the vagaries of summer with such precision and warmth peeling long strips of sunburnt skin from your shoulder as if shuffling off your own cocoon the outdoor shower curtain blowing open in the breeze an M80 firework in the mailbox The Summer Friend is simultaneously a potent evocation of the rhythms and rituals of summer and a stirring remembrance of a friend found and then lost
