Tao Te Ching Victor H. Mair, Lao Tzu, 2012-04-11 A landmark translation of one of the most popular works of world literature this edition of the Tao Te Ching is based on the Ma wang tui manuscripts Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu, 2017-02-18 The Tao Te Ching is a classic of Chinese literature and one of the foundation texts of Taoism a Chinese religious philosophy It is also known as the Daodejing Dao De Jing Daode Jing or simply as the Laozi Tao Te Ching is the romanization of the title which dates back to the late 19th century AD when English transliterations first appeared The date of original publication is still unknown but the oldest part can be traced back to the latter portion of the 4th century BC However modern experts believe it was written or put together after the Zhuangzi the other seminal text of Daoism which was published in the 3rd century BC There are several different translations of the title but the most common is as follows Dao or Tao means way but is most often used to mean the way as in the fundamental force driving the universe De has several meanings including perhaps most relevantly virtue Jing in this context means something like canon or great book So the full title can be understood to mean The Book of the Way of Virtue The book comprises 81 chapters today but there is evidence that chapter division was a later development for the book. If this is the case then the original text had a much more free flowing style. As it stands now the book is poetic in form with allowances for broad interpretation of the text. It is written with an interesting rhetorical style. It features bold declarative statements that are immediately confronted with statements that seem to contradict them. Some experts believe that the purpose of this style is to get the reader thinking to reconcile these contradictions.

The Tao Te Ching (Dao De Jing) Gordon J. Van De Water, 2010-12-01. For twenty years Gordon J. Van De Water has collected editions of the world classic the Tao Te Ching and pondered this ancient yet still vibrant Chinese text of wisdom literature. Written in the sixth century before the Common Era and ascribed to Lao Tzu a venerable sage it offers a guide to life based on adherence to the Tao or Mother Nature those forces and powers that govern and shape both the world and human nature. Its eighty one verses repeatedly emphasize seeking harmony through simplicity the rejection of the trappings of material wealth and the arrogance of power and identification with the great underlying forces of the universe. Many of the verses also offer practical wisdom for those in leadership positions. So fascinating has been the compressed wisdom of the Tao Te Ching that it has been translated into many languages more often than any other book except the Bible. Van De Water has sought to strike to the heart of this highly compressed and often enigmatic text by creating a plain English version that highlights the continuing relevance of the Tao Te Ching for our complex and oft troubled times. His interpretation also includes an introduction selected translations and interpretations in English by pioneering scholars and an extensive bibliography of translations and interpretations in English.

Daodejing Hans-Georg Moeller, Laozi, 2015-11-13. This translation presents Daoism's basic text in highly readable contemporary English. Incorporating the latest scholarship in the field including the most recent discoveries of ancient manuscripts in the 1970s and 90s the book explains Daodejing's often cryptic verses in a clear and concise way. The introduction interprets the Daodejing's poetic imagery in the context of ancient Chinese symbolism and a brief philosophical analysis accompanies each of the 81 translated chapters of the Daodejing.
