The Tattooed Map Barbara Hodgson:

The Tattooed Map Barbara Hodgson, 1995 Somewhere in Northern Africa an intrepid traveler awakens with a mysterious mark on her hand that soon develops into a detailed macabre map spreading across her skin As Lydia's journal entries unfold complete with fold out maps photos and drawings the reader becomes drawn into the conundrum of the tattooed map as Lydia herself 133 illustrations 65 in color Tattoos, Desire and Violence Karin Beeler, 2015-01-27 Whether they graphically depict an individual's or a community's beliefs express the defiance of authority or brand marginalized groups tattoos are a means of interpersonal communication that dates back thousands of years Evidence of the tattoo's place in today's popular culture is all around in advertisements on the stereotypical outlaw character in films and television in supermarket machines that dispense children's wash away tattoos and even in the production of a tattooed Barbie doll This book explores the tattoo's role primarily as an emblem of resistance and marginality in recent literature film and television The association of tattoos with victims of the Holocaust slaves and colonized peoples with gangs inmates and other marginalized groups and the connection of the tattoo narrative to desire and violence are discussed at length The Routledge Companion to Literary Media Astrid Ensslin, Julia Round, Bronwen Thomas, 2023-08-30 The Routledge Companion to Literary Media examines the fast moving present and future of a media ecosystem in which the literary continues to play a vital role The term literary media challenges the tendency to hold the two terms distinct and broadens accepted usage of the literary to include popular cultural forms emerging technologies and taste cultures genres and platforms as well as traditions and audiences all too often excluded from literary histories and canons Featuring contributions from leading international scholars and practitioners the Companion provides a comprehensive guide to existing terms and theories that address the alignment of literature and a variety of media forms It situates the concept in relation to existing theories and historiographies considers emerging genres and forms such as locative narratives and autofiction and expands discussion beyond the boundaries by which literary authorship is conventionally defined Contributors also examine specific production and publishing contexts to provide in depth analysis of the promotion of literary media materials The volume further considers reading and other aspects of situated audience engagement such as Indigenous and oral storytelling prize and review cultures book clubs children and young adults This authoritative collection is an invaluable resource for scholars and students working at the intersection of literary and media studies Teaching Multiwriting Robert L. Davis, Mark F Shadle, 2007-04-23 Formulaic ways to train students in composition and rhetoric are no longer effective say authors Robert L Davis and Mark F Shadle Scholar teachers must instead reinvent the field from the inside Teaching Multiwriting Researching and Composing with Multiple Genres Media Disciplines and Cultures presents just such a reinvention with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composition Seeking to open the minds of both writers and readers to new understandings the authors argue for the supplanting of the outdated research paper assignment with research projects that use multiple forms to explore questions that cannot be fully answered This innovative volume geared to composition teachers at all levels includes sixteen helpful illustrations and provides classroom exercises and projects for each chapter The Artful Dodger Nick Bantock, 2000-07 The Artful Dodger surveys the vast and varied territory that Bantock's work encompasses from his English art school days to paperback covers pure abstract experimentation to pop up books Griffin Sabine to his most recent work His own words lend a highly personal often revealing angle to more than 350 color images Paris Out of Hand Karen Elizabeth Gordon, Barbara Hodgson, Nick Bantock, 1996-08 An illustrated guide to a surrealist Paris At the Cinema l'Ange des Sables they show only movies shot in the desert while in the Cafe Dada you insert food into an automatic dispenser and get money By the author of The Red Shoes Contemporary Archival Fiction Elin Ivansson, 2025-09-30 This book presents a synthesised framework for analysing archival poetics in multimodal literature examining case studies from twenty first century American fiction towards elucidating the archival turn in contemporary literature more broadly Ivansson turns her focus on multimodal archival fiction here understood as works which engage with archival practices of collecting and organising both verbal text and visual inclusions of fictional and factual archival material such as photographs sketches notes and newspaper clippings The volume brings together work from multimodality cognitive stylistics and narratology with archival studies to demonstrate how contemporary archival fiction engages with archival themes through multimodal design Case studies include works from Barbara Hodgson Leanne Shapton Valeria Luiselli and Jacob Garbe and Aaron A Reed The selected examples allow for a detailed exploration of how to analyse the multimodal composition and reader experience of archival poetics Furthermore these case studies also elucidate how such a framework can be applied more broadly to the analysis of fictional works thematically and structurally concerned with the archive or those that grapple with such areas of interest in contemporary research as materiality bookishness and ontological ambiguity This volume will appeal to students and scholars in multimodality stylistics American literature and literary studies Hippolyte's Island Barbara Hodgson, 2012-06-08 From an acclaimed author and artist this cleverly illustrated novel takes readers on a fabulous journey and a touching pilgrimage of faith Publishers Weekly Adventurer and travel writer Hippolyte Web has set his sights on an expedition to the Auroras a group of tiny islands in the South Atlantic that haven't been spotted in centuries Equipped with outdated charts an inadequate sailboat and an advance for a book about his quest the trip soon leads to discoveries beyond anything he could have imagined But the challenges that he meets are nothing compared to those that await him when he returns Marie Simplon his no nonsense book editor is more than a little skeptical of Hippolyte's strange tale As he inundates her with centuries old maps sketches and specimens she is drawn into the mysterious details of his voyage The two are soon joined in a race Hippolyte to prove his islands exist Marie to refute his claims But Marie's conflicting emotions about the journey and the man lead her on her own quest to discover for herself the limits of logic and the power of belief B C L A Reporter British Columbia Library Association, 1996 The Sensualist Barbara Hodgson, 1998 Helen Martin is a scholar of antique anatomical illustration She knows the human body inside and out But she doesn't know her own body anymore because Helen is quite literally losing her senses Sight hearing touch smell taste all are disappearing And she has started hallucinating for surely it is a hallucination that her body is being replaced piece by piece with someone else's Her husband too seems to be lost vanished during a business trip to Europe Things grow more curious when Helen sets off to find him On the night train to Vienna mysteries proliferate A parade of characters from the grotesque to the jolly to the inexplicable present her with bizarre gifts gossip rumor Much of her unaccountable experience Helen is prepared to attribute to jet lag and a nasty head cold until a gruesome murder at an anatomical museum alerts her to the fact that someone is taking her visit very seriously indeed

The Lives of Shadows Barbara Hodgson, 2012-01-06 A traveler finds a home in Damascus and fights to keep it through two ruinous wars in a unique novel Page turning intrigue and extremely readable prose Toronto Globe it is ancient and it is after a bit of negotiation with the owner his He has every intention of staying there for the rest of his life But the world doesn't relinquish its hold so easily Two bloody wars one in Europe and one in Syria leave Julian wounded and the city of Damascus in ruins He returns from battle to find his precious house still standing but no longer entirely his It seems someone else may be occupying the shadows of Bait Katib A mystery a love story and a journey to a sepia toned past Barbara Hodgson's beautifully illustrated novel will haunt and delight her many devoted readers and tempt legions more to take a guided journey into another world A mysterious mesmerizing tale an exquisite excursion back into history borne on the author's keen imagination and creativity Booklist starred review
