Marshall, 2017-04-04 It's good to take stock from time to time but at forty or fifty something you can find that you're dissatisfied and bored The temptation is to take a wrecking ball to your life but that risks alienating your partner and your children without necessarily ending up any happier Just gritting your teeth doesn't work either anyway you've already tried that Fortunately there's another way to become fulfilled and lead the life that's right for you rather than what your parents, society or anybody else thinks If you're fed up with life questioning whether you should stay married or thinking you might be better off with someone else marital therapist Andrew G Marshall has a radical idea to help you move from the first half to the second of your life without messing everything up it's not a midlife crisis it's an opportunity He explains in part one The three central questions you need to answer and why everybody else is distracting themselves and avoiding facing them How to put what's happening now into the context of your whole life journey How to avoid the tempting short cuts that cause more heartache in the long term Why if you pass this midlife test everything is up from here Why you're not in the wrong If it's your partner who has turned grumpy critical and blames you for everything you will be feeling alone and full of despair Don't worry in part two of this compassionate book Andrew G Marshall explains A whole new vocabulary for discussing the midlife crisis without putting your partner's back up What's really going on in your partner's head What causes depression and how to help Five killer replies to the blocks that stop you talking properly about your marriage Why you're not in the wrong Together you will learn three new skills that will either change your marriage into the connected fulfilling and loving relationship of which you've always dreamed or help you separate amicably and be great coparents together

American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Dark Splendor Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2015-06-29 Mistakes disappointments suffering and heartbreak can prevent us from growing physically emotionally even spiritually or they can propel us to a new way of life Building on the contributions of therapists holistic healers and spiritual mentors such as Richard Rohr James Hollis Elizabeth Lesser Bill Plotkin Ken Wilber and Thich Nhat Hanh Dark Splendor takes us on a journey into depth spirituality exploring the two halves of life noting how the perspectives and experiences of the first half of life either leave us frozen emotionally and spiritually or serve as stepping stones to the vibrant maturity called the second half of life This further journey is not chronological nor does one magically stumble upon it at midlife or in times of crisis though these often serve as catalysts The second journey is largely unknown today even by people we consider deeply religious since most individuals and institutions remain stymied in the preoccupations of the first half of life establishing identity creating boundary markers and seeking security The first half of life task while essential is not the full journey Furthermore one cannot walk the second journey with first journey tools One needs a new toolkit Dark Splendor provides the transformational tools that help transport us to the mystery and beauty of the second half of life The world is more magical less predictable more autonomous less controllable more varied less simple more infinite less knowable more wonderfully troubling than we could have imagined being able to tolerate when we were young James Hollis God comes to you disguised as your life Paula D Arcy
