The Storm And The Fall:

The Storm and the Fall Lebbeus Woods, 2004-02-01 By any measure Lebbeus Woods is one of the most original architects working today His body of theoretical work focuses on buildings of crisis whether marred by major earthquakes suffering the effects of economic embargo or damaged by war Since the destruction of the World Trade Center his designs have taken on new meaning and significance In The Storm and the Fall Woods brings his visions to a new depth moving them from feverishly rendered drawings to three dimensional space The book focuses on two recent Woods installations one at the Houghton Gallery at New York s Cooper Union the other at the Fondation Cartier pour l art contemporain Paris that address the role of today s architecture The Storm critiques the geometric box that rules most building designs and proposes instead a dynamic field of potential energy represented by a complex array of vectors The Fall crystallizes a built space in the midst of collapse witnessing a moment too brief to inhabit except in imagination Both pieces are explored in Woods s powerful sketches renderings models and constructions exposing the mutations that enable them to be A postscript of his hopeful design for a new World Center relates even more of his ideas and essays by Anthony Vidler and Paul Virilio offer insights into the significance of the work

The Fall of Cities in the Mediterranean Mary R. Bachvarova, Dorota Dutsch, Ann Suter, 2016-02-15 A body of theory has developed about the role and function of memory in creating and maintaining cultural identity Yet there has been no consideration of the rich Mediterranean and Near Eastern traditions of laments for fallen cities in commemorating or resolving communal trauma This volume offers new insights into the trope of the fallen city in folk song and a variety of literary genres These commemorations reveal memories modified by diverse agendas and contains narrative structures and motifs that show the meaning of memory making about fallen cities Opening a new avenue of research into the Mediterranean genre of city lament this book examines references to or re workings of otherwise lost texts or ways of commemorating fallen cities in the extant texts and with greater emphasis than usual on the point of view of the victors
