The Strong Breed Summary:

The Summary, 1908      Summary of Publications Alma LaVoy Wilson, Byron Alder, Ezra Grover Carter, George F. Knowlton, Reuben Lorenzo Hill, William Peterson, 1926      Black Theater, City Life Macelle Mahala, 2022-08-15 Macelle Mahala's rich study of contemporary African American theater institutions reveals how they reflect and shape the histories and cultural realities of their cities. Arguing that the community in which a play is staged is as important to the work's meaning as the script or set, Mahala focuses on four cities' arts ecologies to shed new light on the unique relationship between performance and place. Cleveland home to the oldest continuously operating Black theater in the country, Pittsburgh birthplace of the legendary playwright August Wilson, San Francisco a metropolis currently experiencing displacement of its Black population, and Atlanta a city with forty years of progressive Black leadership and reverse migration, Black Theater, City Life looks at Karamu House Theatre, the August Wilson African American Cultural Center, Pittsburgh Playwrights Theatre Company, the Lorraine Hansberry Theatre, the African American Shakespeare Company, the Atlanta Black Theatre Festival, and Kenny Leon's True Colors Theatre Company to demonstrate how each organization articulates the cultural specificities, sociopolitical realities, and histories of African Americans. These companies have faced challenges that mirror the larger racial and economic disparities in arts funding and social practice in America, while their achievements exemplify such institutions' vital role in enacting an artistic practice that reflects the cultural backgrounds of their local communities. Timely, significant, and deeply researched, this book spotlights the artistic and civic import of Black theaters in American cities.      The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1982. One number each year includes an annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature.

Critical Perspectives on Wole Soyinka Wole Soyinka, 1980. Distinguished scholars analyze the plays, poetry, and prose of Wole Soyinka, winner of the Nobel Prize for literature in 1986. Essays trace his career and place his work in the general context of African literature.      The Cambridge Guide to African and Caribbean Theatre Martin Banham, Errol Hill, George Woodyard, 1994-08-04. Comprehensive alphabetical guide to theatre in Africa and the Caribbean, national essays, and entries on countries and performers.      Technical Note, 1907      Drama John C. Coldewey, W. R. Streitberger, 2001. This is one of the most comprehensive anthologies of enduring masterpieces of Western drama available. The critical and interpretive histories of the works, as well as background on the theaters where the plays were produced, highlight the cultural and theatrical context of dramatic performances. The collection features 39 plays and 1 trope from all periods of Western drama, including Greek, Medieval, Renaissance, Neoclassical, Early Modern, European, Later Modern, American, and European and Contemporary. For individuals interested in expanding their knowledge and critical understanding of dramatic performances, their histories, and the important role of reviewers.      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress.
