Ryan, 2009 Assessment with the WAIS IV is designed as both a teaching text and a reference source for students and professionals The text provides an in depth analysis of a major instrument useful for the cognitive assessment of older adolescents and adults Preface Clinical Interpretation of the WAIS-III and WMS-III David S. Tulskey, Donald H. Saklofske, Gordon J. Chelune, Robert K. Heaton, Robert J. Ivnik, Robert Bornstein, Aurelio Prifitera, Mark F. Ledbetter, 2003-10-27 This guide to the WAIS III and WMS III tests is written to help clinical practitioners achieve efficient and accurate interpretations of test results The only interpretive guide to be based on data obtained while standardizing the tests this reference source provides new models for interpreting results as well as practical information on the diagnostic validity demographically corrected norms and accuracy of the tests in measuring intelligence and memory The focus of information is to allow clinicians to reduce variance in the interpretations of scores indicating how best to factor in socio economic status of respondents interpreting meaningful change in serial assessments and scoring with alternate or omitted sub tests Also included in the book are chapters on accommodating clients with disabilities The final chapter discusses frequently asked questions with answers on the use and interpretation of the tests as well as practical issues to help make scoring time efficient and accurate Only guide to be based on data obtained in the standardization of the tests Practical examples given to help guide interpretation of scores Focuses on information to make faster more accurate scoring interpretations Assessing Adolescent and Adult Intelligence Alan S. Kaufman, Elizabeth O. Lichtenberger, 2005-08-05 The classic text now updated with a new interpretive approach to the WAIS III Assessing Adolescent and Adult Intelligence the classic text from Alan Kaufman and Elizabeth Lichtenberger has consistently provided the most comprehensive source of information on cognitive assessment of adults and adolescents The newly updated Third Edition provides important enhancements and additions that highlight the latest research and interpretive methods for the WAIS III Augmenting the traditional sequential and simultaneous WAIS III interpretive methods the authors present a new approach derived from Cattell Horn Carroll CHC theory This approach combines normative assessment performance relative to age peers with ipsative assessment performance relative to the person's own mean level Following Flanagan and Kaufman's work to develop a similar CHC approach for the WISC IV Kaufman and Lichtenberger have applied this system to the WAIS III profile of scores along with integrating recent WAIS III literature Four appendices present the new method in depth In addition to a detailed description the authors provide a blank interpretive worksheet to help examiners make the calculations and decisions needed for applying the additional steps of the new system and norms tables for the new WAIS III subtest combinations added in this approach. Assessing Adolescent and Adult Intelligence remains the premier resource for the field covering not only the WAIS III but also the WJ III, the KAIT and several brief measures of intelligence as well as laying out a relevant up to date discussion of the discipline. The new theory based interpretive approach for the WAIS III makes this a vital resource for practicing psychologists as well as a comprehensive text for graduate students.

It presents a new model of malingering and related biases and develops a diagnostic system based on it that is applicable to PTSD, chronic pain and TBI. In Malingering, Feigning and Response Style Assessment in Psychiatric Psychological Injury Dr. Young ambitiously sets out to articulate and synthesize the polarities involved in the assessment of response styles in psychological disabilities including PTSD, pain and TBI. He does so thoroughly and very even handedly neither minimizing the degree that outright faking can be found in substantial numbers of examinees nor disregarding the possibility that there can be causes for validity test failure other than malingering He reviews the prior systems for classifying evidence of malingering and proposes his own criteria for feigned PTSD These are conservative and well grounded in the prior literature Finally the book contains dozens of very recent references giving testament to Dr Young s immersion in the personal injury literature as might be expected from his experience as founder and Editor in Chief for Psychological Injury and the Law Reviewer Steve Rubenzer Ph D ABPP Board Certified Forensic Psychologist
