Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 2024-12-02 This book delves into the future of the relationship between religion and the status of women With contributions from distinguished scholars it examines current trends in the following religions Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism and Daoism It envisions the implications of these developments for the future position of women The method employed in this book is characterized by what is known as personalist epistemology The contributing authors blend their experiences as women within the diverse traditions along with more comprehensive accounts of the role of women in these religions By doing so they combine the finest aspects of subjective and objective approaches to studying women in world religions The contributors examine contemporary trends within their respective religious traditions by combining the finest aspects of subjective and objective approaches to studying women in world religions It serves as a testament to the enduring interest in women's roles in religion and the dynamic nature of the field The book intends to appeal to many readers from the general public to academics It offers valuable insights into the position of women in world religions making it relevant to both the average person and those engaged in scholarly pursuits

Today's Woman in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 1994-01-01 This book examines how the women's movement is affecting traditional religions and civilizations throughout the world It reviews cases of global impact in Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Confucianism Judaism Christianity Islam and Australian aboriginal religion This volume completes the trilogy devoted to women in world religions edited by Arvind Sharma The second book in the series is entitled Religion and Women The present work surveys the position of women in the religious traditions covered in the first volume of the trilogy Women in World Religions placing these traditions in contemporary context

Feminism and World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 1999-01-01 Addressing religion and feminism on a global scale this unprecedented book contains a nuanced and fine tuned treatment of seven of the world's religions from a feminist perspective by leading women scholars The fact that these authors share a dual but undivided commitment both to themselves as women and to their traditions as adherents imparts to their voices a prophetic quality and if Mahatma Gandhi is to be believed even scriptural value

Religion and Women Arvind Sharma, 1994-01-01 This book discusses the position of women in the Native American African Shinto Jaina Zoroastrian Sikh and Baha'i faiths for the first time in a single volume and evolves a conceptual framework within which their positions could be comprehensively considered The contributing scholars provide an enlarged database for a more thorough discussion of the questions pertaining to women and religion in general and simultaneously advance the theoretical frontiers in women's studies Religion and Women belongs to a trilogy about women and world religions edited by Arvind Sharma the first and third volumes being respectively Women in World Religions and Today's Woman in World Religions

Women Saints in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 2000-09-22 Presents stories and commentaries on women saints from the Hindu Buddhist Taoist Jewish Islamic and Christian traditions

Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women's diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures Across the span of human history women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality In the contemporary period women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before Contemporaneously with this increased visibility women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality African religions prehistoric religions and other broad topics Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography

Asceticism Vincent L. Wimbush, Richard Valantasis, 2002-05-23 From meditation and fasting to celibacy and anchoritism the ascetic impulse has been an enduring and complex phenomenon throughout history Offering a sweeping view of this elusive and controversial aspect of religious life and culture Asceticism looks at the ascetic impulse from a unique vantage point Cross cultural cross religious and multidisciplinary in nature these essays provide a broad historical and comparative perspective on asceticism a subject rarely studied outside the context of individual religious traditions The work represents the input of more than forty preeminent scholars in a wide range of fields and disciplines and analyzes asceticism from antiquity to the present in European Near Eastern African Asian and North American settings Asceticism is organized around four major themes that cut across religious traditions origins and meanings of asceticism which explores the motivations and impulses behind ascetic behaviors hermeneutics of asceticism which looks at texts and rhetorics and their presuppositions aesthetics of asceticism which documents responses evoked by ascetic impulses and practices as well as the arts of ascetic practices themselves and politics of asceticism which analyzes the power dynamics of asceticism especially as regards gender cultural and ethnic differences Critical responses to the major papers ensure the focus upon the themes and unify the discussion Two general addresses on broad philosophical and historical interpretive issues suggest the importance of the subject of asceticism for wide ranging but serious cultural critical discussions An Appendix Ascetica Miscellanea includes six short papers on provocative topics not related to the four major themes and a panel discussion on the practices and meanings of asceticism in contemporary religious life and culture A selected bibliography and an index are also included The only comprehensive reference work on asceticism with a multicultural multireligious and multidisciplinary perspective Asceticism offers a model not only for an understanding of a most important dimension of religious life but also for future interdisciplinary study in general Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26

Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue
