Grob, George Athan Billias, 2010-06-15 This collection of essays on American history reflects recent scholarship Contributors new to this edition include Gary Nash Arthur Schlesinger Richard P McCormick Gerda Lerner Ellen C DuBois Vicki L Ruiz Nathan I Huggins John Lewis Gaddis Paul Kennedy and Kevin P Philips Edited by Gerald N Grob and George Athan Billias

Narratives of Marginalized Identities in Higher Education Santosh Khadka, Joanna Davis-McElligatt, Keith Dorwick, 2018-07-27 This book features theorized narratives from academics who inhabit marginalized identity positions including among others academics with non normative genders sexualities and relationships nontenured faculty racial and ethnic minorities scholars with HIV depression and anxiety and other disabilities immigrants and international students and poor and working class faculty and students The chapters in this volume explore the ways in which marginalized identities fundamentally shape and impact the academic experience thus the contributors in this collection demonstrate how academic outsiderism works both within the confines of their college or university systems and a broader matrix of community state and international relations With an emphasis on the inherent intersectionality of identity positions this book addresses the broad matrix of ways academics navigate their particular locations as marginalized subjects

Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice

Rape Culture and Religious Studies Rhiannon Graybill, Meredith Minister, Beatrice Lawrence, 2019-04-30 Rape Culture and Religious Studies Critical and Pedagogical Engagements stages a critical engagement between religious texts and the problem of sexual violence Rape and other forms of sexual violence are widespread on college and university campuses they also occur in sacred texts and religious traditions The volume addresses these difficult intersections as they play out in texts traditions and university contexts The volume gathers contributions from religious studies scholars to engage these questions from a variety of institutional contexts and to offer a constructive assessment of religious texts and traditions

The Pocket Guide to Sensorimotor Psychotherapy in Context Pat Ogden, 2021-06-08 A guide to this groundbreaking somatic cognitive approach to PTSD and attachment disturbances treatment Pat Ogden presents Sensorimotor Psychotherapy with an updated vision for her work that advocates for an anti racist anti oppression lens throughout the book Working closely with four consultants a mix of Sensorimotor Psychotherapy Institute graduates trainers consultants and talented Sensorimotor Psychotherapists who have made social justice and sociocultural awareness the center of their work this book expands the current conception of Sensorimotor Psychotherapy Numerous composite cases with a variety of diverse clients bring the approach to life This book will inspire practitioners to develop a deeper sensitivity to the issues and legacy of oppression and marginalization as they impact the field of psychology as well as present topics of trauma and early attachment injuries dissociation dysregulation and mindfulness through a Sensorimotor Psychotherapy lens

Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly, 2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women s role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed

Race/Gender/Class/Media Rebecca Ann Lind, 2023-03-14 The fifth edition of this popular textbook considers diversity in the mass media in three main settings Audiences Content and Production The book brings together 55 readings the majority newly commissioned for this edition by scholars representing a variety of humanities and social science disciplines Together these readings provide a multifaceted and intersectional look at how race gender and class relate to the creation and use of media texts as well as the media texts themselves Designed to be flexible for use in the classroom the book begins with a detailed introduction to key concepts and presents a contextualizing introduction to each of the three main sections Each reading contains multiple It s Your Turn activities to foster student engagement and which can serve as the basis for assignments The book also offers a list of resources books articles films and websites that are of value to students and instructors This volume is an essential introduction to interdisciplinary studies of race gender and class across both digital and legacy media Q&A Martin Manalansan,Alice Y. Hom,Kale Bantigue Fajardo,David L. Eng,2021-07-16 This book is a follow up to Q A Queer in Asian America edited by David L Eng and Alice Y Hom published in 1998 Gender Inequality in Our Changing World Lori Kenschaft,Roger Clark,Desiree Ciambrone,2015-07-24 Gender Inequality in Our Changing World A Comparative Approach focuses on the contemporary United States but places it in historical and global context Written for sociology of gender courses this textbook identifies conditions that encourage greater or lesser gender inequality explains how gender and gender inequality change over time and explores how gender intersects with other hierarchies especially those related to race social class and sexual identity The authors integrate historical and international materials as they help students think both theoretically and empirically about the causes and consequences of gender inequality both in their own lives and in the lives of others worldwide
