Accompanys 9780073512303 Sister Species Lisa Kemmerer,2011-06-08 There is a very strong association between women animals and activism In Women Social Justice and Animal Advocacy activist Lisa A Kemmerer presents the narratives of fourteen ecofeminist activists who describe their own experiences in the field often from the perspective of discovering the extent of a particular kind of animal oppression and resolving to do something about it The narratives are bold and gripping sometimes horrifying and cover a range of topics relating to animal rights and liberation The writers discuss contemporary cockfighting factory farming orphaned primates in Africa the wild bird trade scientific experimentation on animals laws against dangerous dogs and violence against baby seals Sister Species provides a wide survey of what women are doing in the animal activism movement The writers ask readers to rethink how we view animals in our daily lives and how we can take action to protect them Kemmerer s introduction explains why she collected these particular stories and how she views the relationship between feminism and animal suffering The foreword is by Carol J Adams author of The Sexual Politics of Meat 1990 Neither Man nor Beast Feminism and the Defense of Animals 1994 The Feminist Care Tradition in Animal Ethics A Reader 2007 and many other books None of these essays has been previously published Women in Prison Barbara H. Zaitzow,Jim Thomas,2003 It is old news that the conditions and policies of women s prisons are different from those for incarcerated men Less evident however is how gender differences shape those policies and how gender identity and roles shape women s adaptation and resistance to prison culture and control The papers in this collection explore how the gender based attitudes that women bring to prison frame how they respond to the prison environment and how gender stereotypes continue to affect the treatment and opportunities of incarcerated women today It looks particularly at how the personal and social problems imported into the prison setting become part of the intricate web of prison culture and how extensively women s prison experience reflects the control and domination they experienced in the outside world Transnational Borderlands in Women's Global Networks M. Sierra,C. Román-Odio,2011-06-06 Transnational Borderlands The Making of Cultural Resistance in Women s Global Networks investigates the implications of transnational feminist methodologies at multiple levels collective actions theory pedagogy discursive and visual productions It addresses a substantial gap in the field of transnational feminisms namely the absence of a voice that links social and theoretical outcomes to the politics of representation in literature visual art discourses of rights and citizenships and pedagogy The book encompasses three categories of relevance to contemporary transnational methodologies the politics of cultural representation in literature and visual art the de centering of human women s rights and pedagogies of crossing and dissent Given current interest in the cultures of globalization and the role women and other minorities play in them we expect this book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Women s and Gender Studies Borderlands Studies Transnational Studies and to anyone interested in how transnational processes shape a culture of resistance in women s global networks Reproductive Justice Joan C. Chrisler,2012-02-13 Every woman in the world has the right to control her own body plan her family receive good quality medical care and give birth to a healthy baby This book takes a comprehensive look at the status of women s reproductive rights from a transnational human rights perspective Reproductive justice is a relatively new term that underscores the fact that the existence of reproductive rights does not mean that women are able to exercise those rights For women unable to exercise their rights for any number of reasons a lack of available services where they live lack of money or health insurance to pay for services being forbidden by family members to seek services the reality is they have no choices to make and possess little if any control over their own bodies regardless of what the government states their rights are Reproductive Justice A Global Concern provides a comprehensive and integrated examination of the status of reproductive rights for the world s women covering a wide range of reproductive rights issues Topics include women s rights to determine their own sexuality and choose their own partners rape sex trafficking fertility treatments and other assisted reproductive technologies contraception and abortion maternal and infant mortality postpartum support and breastfeeding
