

Wonder

by R.J. Palacio

Thank you for downloading a Project School Wellness product! Each activity/assignment created has been specifically designed to enhance the well-being of your students and to cultivate a positive school culture! - Jessica

What's Included:

- Characterization worksheet
- Blank character cards (Click the name - Audie, Audie's parents, Charlotte, Jack, Julian, Justin, Miranda, Mr. Tushman, Summer, Via, and Miss Gerson)
- Character Point of View writing activity
- Writing Personal Precepts worksheet
- Blank precept postcards
- End of project reflections worksheet
- Student and teacher examples of each activity and worksheet
- Project Booklet

Purpose of Activity

To build empathy by reflecting and building on Audie's story.

After reading Wonder, students will choose one character from the story and delve into the point of view of that character. From their research, students will create a character poster. Once posters are completed, students will review posters of the other main characters.

Before Activity

- Read Wonder and The Julian Chapter by R.J. Palacio with your students. (I highly recommend Mr. W Read's Wonder read aloud resource - Wonder / Julian Chapter)

Prep for Project

- Print off characterization worksheet and cards, point of view writing activity, precept worksheet and postcards, and end of project reflections worksheet -- (Click "Quick Print" below for a quicker printing option.)

Directions for Activity

- Divide students into groups and assign each group a character. Your class will determine how many characters students highlight. (I suggest prioritizing these characters)
 - Audie - the bullied
 - Jack - friend of the bullied
 - Julian - the bully
 - Summer - friend to all
 - Charlotte - the bystander
 - Mr. Tushman and other teachers - teachers and supervisors of the bullied and bullies
 - Audie's parents - parents of the bullied
 - Julian's parents - parents of the bully
 - Via - sibling of the bullied
- Next I suggest following the progression of activities. Click the phase number to read specific details and instructions.
 - Phase One: Characterization cards and the character's guiding precept
 - Phase Two: Character Point of View
 - Phase Three: Writing personal precepts - precept postcards
 - Phase Four: Create Poster
 - Phase Five: Gallery walk and reflections worksheet

Wonder John Pennington, 2017-02-09 The lessons on demand series is designed to provide ready to use resources for novel study In this book you will find key vocabulary student organizer pages and assessments This guide is divided into two sections Section one is the teacher section which consists of vocabulary and activities Section two holds all of the student pages including assessments and graphic organizers Now available Student Workbooks Find them on Amazon com Using Literature for Language Learning Diego Sirico, 2021-06-17 For language teachers the daunting task of teaching languages both native and foreign in ways that will engage and motivate their students is a daily struggle This volume offers an innovative approach to achieving these goals through guided readings of selected literary texts In addition to presenting empirical research into the use of poetry prose and theatre for language learning it provides useful practical tools such as sample lesson plans This promising approach can be adapted to a variety of language learning contexts and can help students develop and enhance linguistic cultural and motivational competences The book will be of compelling interest to teachers of all languages as well as researchers in the fields of education and language studies Teaching Evidence-Based Writing: Fiction Leslie Blauman, 2016-09-19 One in a million Yes that s how rare it is to have so many write about reading strategies so beautifully put to use Each year Leslie Blauman guides her students to become highly skilled at supporting their thinking about texts and in Evidence Based Writing Fiction she shares her win win process Leslie combed the ELA standards and all her favorite books and built a lesson structure you can use in two ways with an entire text or with just the excerpts she s included in the book Addressing Evidence Character Theme Point of View Visuals Words and Structure each section includes Lessons you can use as teacher demonstrations or for guided practice with Best the Test tips on how to authentically teach the skills that show up on exams with the texts you teach Prompt Pages serve as handy references giving students the key questions to ask themselves as they read any text and consider how an author s meaning and structure combine Excerpts to Write About Pages feature carefully selected passages from novels short stories and picture books you already know and love and questions that require students to discover a text s literal and deeper meanings Write About Reading Templates scaffold students to think about a text efficiently by focusing on its critical literary elements or text structure demands and help them rehearse for more extensive responses Writing Tasks invite students to transform their notes into a more developed paragraph or essay with sufficiently challenging tasks geared for grades 6 8 And best of all your students gain a confidence in responding to complex texts and ideas that will serve them well in school on tests and in any situation when they are asked What are you basing that on Show me how you know Students Taking Action Together Lauren M. Fullmer, Laura F. Bond, Crystal N. Molyneaux, Samuel J. Nayman, Maurice J. Elias, 2022-04-27 A field tested classroom based approach for developing the critical thinking social emotional problem solving and discussion skills students need to be good citizens and effective changemakers We often hear that a key purpose of schooling is to prepare students for informed and active citizenship But what does this look like in practice How do teachers pursue this goal amid other pressing priorities including student mastery of both academic content and social emotional competencies Students Taking Action Together based on a program of the same name developed at Rutgers University clarifies that the way to prepare young people for life in a democracy is by intentionally rehearsing democratic behaviors in the classroom This field tested program STAT for short is built on five research backed teaching strategies that work with existing social studies English language arts and history curriculum in the upper elementary middle and high school levels Incorporating these strategies into your lessons is a way to meet students natural desire to be heard with skill building that empowers them to Adhere to norms of civil conversation even when topics are controversial and emotions are high Speak confidently and listen actively Engage in respectful debate aimed at understanding issues rather than winning points Target communication to different audiences needs and contexts and Examine problems from many sides considering potential solutions drawing up action plans and evaluating these plans effectiveness against historical examples In addition to vignettes that show the five STAT strategies in action you ll find practical teaching tips and sample STAT lesson plans For school leaders there is a road map for schoolwide STAT implementation and guidance on communicating the program s value to stakeholders Are you ready to help students understand complex content confront pressing social issues and engage with the structures of power to advocate for change This book is for you
