My Zimbabwean Odyssey Sheila V Hartwell, 2018-09-27 My book tells of my return to my beloved homeland Zimbabwe some fifteen years after my last visit

Before arriving I am forewarned that I will weep at the state of the country and I share with the reader my shock and sadness at what I find a nation once considered the breadbasket of Africa is now reduced to a basket case I return too to the Harare Children s Home where I grew up and as I am shown around I am transported back to the early sixties taking the reader with me as I share memories good bad and amusing of a place that I shall forever be grateful to and that will always have a very special place in my heart Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe, Volume I Esther Mavengano, Sophia Chirongoma, 2023-04-28

Volume one of Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe pays special attention to the overarching view that the 2023 harmonized elections define the fate of the major presidential contenders and their parties as well as re shaping the political and economic trajectories of the nation Cognizant of the complex nature of the Zimbabwean political realm and nuanced dynamics at play the chapters in this volume cover three interrelated themes the electoral environment in Zimbabwean politics language politics and elections in Zimbabwe and lastly electoral institutions and human rights in Zimbabwean politics The chapters foreground the ongoing tensions and politicking between the two main rivals the ruling party ZANU PF and the main opposition party the Citizens Coalition for Change CCC The contributors also highlight the impact of internal tensions and factionalism within the contending parties the apparent voter apathy disconcerting voices due to claims about lack of transparency and a toxic political space as factors impacting on the outcome of the 2023 presidential elections The volume will appeal to academics and practitioners in politics human rights religion gender media languages linguistics and development studies Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson

Ncube, 2021-11-04 This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa s 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017 he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures This multi and inter disciplinary volume looks to the social media language discourse theatre images political speeches and literary fiction and non fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval The book argues that themes of self renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe s tenure the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of postcolonial social economic and political changes Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies Zimbabwe's Fast Track Land Reform

Prosper B. Matondi, 2012-11-08 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe has emerged as a highly contested reform process both nationally and internationally The image of it has all too often been that of the widespread displacement and subsequent replacement of various people agricultural related production systems facets and processes The reality however is altogether more complex Providing new and much needed empirical research this in depth book examines how processes such as land acquisition allocation transitional production outcomes social life gender and tenure have influenced and been influenced by the forces driving the programme It also explores the ways in which the land reform programme has created a new agrarian structure based on small to medium scale farmers In attempting to resolve the problematic issues the reforms have raised the author argues that it is this new agrarian formation which provides the greatest scope for improving Zimbabwe s agriculture and development Based on a broader geographical scope than any previous study carried out on the subject this is a landmark work on a subject of considerable controversy

Zimbabwe At The Crossroads Jacob Wilson Chikuhwa,2006-05-15 The theme of Zimbabwe at the Crossroads is on issues of governance and economic management The story being told is how a prosperous country at independence in 1980 has virtually turned from a bread basket to a begging bowl After the success with A Crisis of Governance Zimbabwe Dr Jacob Chikuhwa continues the tragic analysis of the Zimbabwean economy An analysis set against a backdrop of growing poverty in a country with abundant human and natural resources this book weaves together a cast of socio economic factors that form the causes of the economic quagmire This academic expos brings to the fore the desperate hope for democracy and economic recovery in Zimbabwe International donor agencies and institutions specialising in African development studies will be delighted with Jacob Chikuhwa's latest instalment whose driving force is the statistical analysis of events in the southern African country Quality in Higher Education as a Tool for Human Development Patience Mukwambo, 2019-04-11 Whilst many studies have explored how quality in higher education is conceptualised in the Global North less attention has been paid to quality in higher education in Africa and the Global South This book uses the human development and capabilities approach to demonstrate how quality in teaching and learning contributes to a range of benefits such as improved wellbeing economic outcomes political engagement and human capital formation amongst graduates The book interrogates the various dimensions of quality as well as factors that impact on the realisation of quality in universities and society at large Recognising that measures of quality are context and stakeholder specific the book uses the Zimbabwean context as a Global South case study It evaluates how quality is conceptualised and operationalised in Zimbabwean universities and how that impacts on teaching and learning policy and practice The book also demonstrates the need for economic resources for individuals and universities and emphasises the importance of a social and educational environment conducive to critical learning and post university opportunities This book will be of interest to researchers across Education African and Development Studies as well as to policymakers and practitioners with an interest in quality assurance and the promotion of teaching and learning in universities in the Global South Remember the Magic... Bill Endicott, 2001-11-01 Remember the Magic is the inspiring story of the birth of Horizon Air and how it became one of the top regional airlines in the United States under the leadership of Milt Kuolt one of the great entrepreneurs of the twentieth century Blood on the Page Lizzy Attree, 2010-03-08 The fourteen interviews in this book form an unprecedented wealth of material on authors responses to HIV AIDS in South Africa and Zimbabwe They comprise a valuable archive which documents and contextualises the variety of views and opinions of different authors on their often ground breaking choices in writing about HIV AIDS Each author ranks among the first to publish fiction on HIV AIDS in their respective countries These interviews are of particular merit as these issues have not been discussed at length with any of the authors before Collectively they offer a unique range of approaches and opinions in response to the HIV AIDS pandemic in southern Africa Their significance lies in their specific literary as well as their broader social cultural and political perspectives on a disease which continues to spread despite extensive NGO medical and government intervention In both South Africa and Zimbabwe government responses have failed to address the urgent need for new political and economic solutions to the challenge of HIV infection Responses among the population have varied from widespread silence shame and fear to political activism and outspoken critiques of government inaction Writers give voice to this silence and contextualise the disparate reactions amongst diverse peoples Globally AIDS killed approximately 2 million in 2008 In 1998 AIDS was the largest killer in southern Africa nearly double the one million deaths from malaria and eight times the 209 000 deaths from tuberculosis It has long been the case that of those dying globally of AIDS the majority live in southern Africa When the associated social and cultural implications of infection with HIV are considered fictional representations contribute significantly to our understanding of the impact of HIV AIDS on communities and individuals and provide a much needed basis for humanising an epidemic which is unimaginable statistically It has been said that the feelings and reactions that HIV AIDS inspires are often too unreal for words and it is this very notion that certain diseases are taboo unmentionable and hardly even named as such that makes verbalisation of this epidemic a modern imperative Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1986 Animals in Peril John Arthur Hoyt,1994 Argues that the theory that endangered species must pay their own way to survive is a political expediency used to justify legalized killing in the name of conservation
