Zona Zamfirova:

Zona Zamfirova Stevan Sremac, 1907 Zona Zamfirova Stevan Sremac, 1907 Intra- and Interlingual Translation in Flux Višnja Jovanović, 2023-02-17 This book extends new lines of inquiry on intra and interlingual translation building on Jakobson's classification of translational relations to take into account the full complexity of language and the role of social dimensions in fostering linguistic unity and identity Jovanović argues that intra and interlingual translation do not form a stable relationship but in fact are both contingent on how languages and their borders are defined Chapters unpack the causes and effects of this instability through the lens of Serbo-Croatian literature where the impact of sociopolitical pressure on language over time can be keenly observed Drawing on work from translation studies sociolinguistics close reading distant reading and discourse analysis Jovanović charts how linguistic fluidity where linguistic borders are challenged at both the macro and the micro level as a result of sociopolitical change in turn shapes literary and cultural circulation In its examination of the intersection of the linguistic and social in translational relations in the Serbo-Croatian context the book can offer wider insights into better understanding the literary and translational landscape of analogous sociolinguistic and geographic milieus This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary translation translation theory sociology of translation comparative literature and multilingualism The Hidden History of New Women in Serbian Culture Svetlana Tomic, 2022-02-10 Settled in the nineteenth century a period of national liberation this book presents facts about the contribution of women to Serbian culture The story is however of an equal contemporary as well as of historical relevance work of these authors remained hidden as they were neither adequately evaluated in school curriculums and textbooks nor recognized by the general public Does the absence from textbooks and literary histories imply their literature is not worth reading Or that the histories of literature are simply biased and inadequate The answers to these questions are elaborated in this book The author carefully investigates the strategies of historians and official politics of remembrance arguing that the link between women's education and emancipation of the society has yet to be properly explained The reader whether a student researcher social scientist or an intellectual interested in the history social development literature or politics of Serbia or the Balkan in general will benefit from the numerous original sources consulted This book is a reminder that understanding society means uncovering the hidden and giving voice to the ignored providing evidence that contradicts dominant theories rather than simply repeating what we are told Lives in Transition Slobodan Randjelović, 2018-10-30 Part of the ongoing series of photobooks published with the Arcus Foundation and Emerson Wajdowicz Studios on queer communities around the world a stunning portrait of a community battling homophobia in Serbia In June 2001 Serbia witnessed its first gay pride parade in history in Belgrade's central square It was a short-lived march as an ultranationalist mob quickly descended on the participants chanting homophobic slurs and injuring dozens For years afterward fear of violence prevented further marches and when in October 2010 the next pride march finally went ahead it again devolved into violence as anti gay rioters firing shots and hurling petrol bombs fought the police It was only in 2014 that a pride march was held uninterrupted albeit under heavy police protection In Lives in Transition photographer Slobodan Randjelovic captures the struggles and successes of twenty LGBTQ people living throughout Serbia a conservative religious country where despite semi progressive LGBTQ protection laws homophobia fueled by religious authorities and right wing political parties remains deeply entrenched In a country where lack of employment opportunity and hostile families frequently drive queer people into poverty and isolation these individuals have struggled to build a community that will offer solace protection and even joy Lives in Transition portrays remarkable and inspiring resilience in the human struggle against a repressive social environment and demonstrates how friendship and community can help people shape their own futures Lives in Transition was designed by Emerson Wajdowicz Studios EWS East European Accessions Index ,1956 Zona Zamfirova Stevan Sremac,Miloš Milošević,2003 Zona Zamfirova - Primary Source Edition Stevan Sremac,2014-02-27 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

Digital Horror Xavier Aldana Reyes,Linnie Blake,2015-10-13 In recent years the ways in which digital technologies have come to shape our experience of the world has been an immensely popular subject in the horror film genre Contemporary horror cinema reflects and exploits the anxieties of our age in its increasing use of hand held techniques and in its motifs of surveillance found footage fictional films that appear real comprising discovered video recordings left behind by victims protagonists and digital haunting when ghosts inhabit digital technologies This book offers an exploration of the digital horror film phenomenon across different national cultures and historic periods examining the sub genres of CCTV horror technological haunting snuff films found footage and torture porn Digital horror it demonstrates is a product of the post 9 11 neo liberal world view characterised by security paranoia constant surveillance and social alienation Digital horror screens its subjects via the transnational technologies of our age such as the camcorder and CCTV and records them in secret footage that may one day be found

The Sociolinguistics of Place and Belonging Leonie Cornips, Vincent A. de Rooij, 2018-03-15 This volume shows the relevance of the concepts of place and belonging for understanding the dynamics of identification through language It also opens up a new terrain for sociolinguistic and linguistic anthropological study namely the margins Rural as well as urbanized areas that are seen as marginal or peripheral to places that are overtly recognized as mixed and hybridized have received relatively little sociolinguistic attention Yet people living in these supposedly less spectacular margins are not immune to the effects of globalization and rapid technological change They too constantly form new ensembles from linguistic and cultural resources which they invest with novel instable often ambiguous meanings This volume focusses on the purportedly unspectacular in order to achieve a full understanding of the relation between language place and belonging The contributors to this volume therefore focus on language practices analyzing them as dialectically related to political economic processes and language ideologies

A Cultural History of Serbia David A. Norris, 2024-03-05 This volume focuses on Serbia's need to manage change while preserving community identities a narrative that avoids the common depiction of Serbian culture as a hostile struggle between modernizers supporting foreign models and traditionalists advocating forms of national cultural patrimony Traditions only function if they are allowed to bend to the necessary modifications demanded by a community's changing historical circumstances Tradition and change are two sides of the same coin which Serbia in its many different incarnations has experienced over the centuries protecting its national heritage while borrowing and adapting intellectual and other trends from Byzantine Ottoman and Western sources Outside influences have been imposed as a direct result of foreign rule or through more friendly channels of communication leading to a complex relationship between autochthonous and alien elements in Serbian society and culture This book argues that the division between the national and international frameworks has often been a false dichotomy with outside features embedded in domestic symbolic capital and Serbian culture simultaneously determined on local national regional and global levels David A. Norris's approach offers a new perspective to students academics and general readers interested in the history of Serbia's participation in the broad networks of cultural exchange
