The Speech Of The Grail:

The Speech of the Grail Linda Sussman, 1995 Storyteller and ceremonialist Linda Sussman explores how to speak in a new way that is one that heals and transforms She takes the epic story of the grail as told by Wolfram von Eschenbach in Parzival as her guide This tale weaves together Celtic Oriental Christian Arthurian and alchemical sources Linda Sussman sees Parzival as depicting the path of initiation to healing speech to doing the truth in word and deed First she tells the story in a beautiful way allowing the reader to reproduce within themselves the potent inner pictures of the text Then she shows that it is not so much a path toward perfection as the recovery of a right relationship to our imperfections She shows too that it is a path in which male and female aspects work together in the overcoming of evil The Speech of the Grail Linda Sue Sussman, 1992 A re telling of Wolfram s story is interspersed with two modes of commentary Following each chapter retold from Wolfram are 1 interpretation of major theses and motifs chosen for their contribution to the psycho spiritual aspects of initiation in general which pertain to healing speech and 2 an improvisational amplification of processes specifically related to language speaking and self awareness of the speaker suggested by the themes and motifs Selections from the Poems of Tennyson Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1913 Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy, 2013 Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology law historical record and literary motifs Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture from myth and legend to law and theology from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth century castrati singers Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres particularly the Old French fabliaux exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard LARISSA TRACY is Associate Professor of Medieval Literature at Longwood University Contributors Larissa Tracy Kathryn Reusch Shaun Tougher Jack Collins Rolf H Bremmer Jr Jay Paul Gates Charlene M Eska Mary A Valante Anthony Adams Mary E Leech Jed Chandler Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Robert L A Clark Karin Sellberg Lena W nggren Music Semiotics: A Network of Significations Esti Sheinberg, 2017-07-05 United in their indebtedness to the scholarship of Raymond Monelle an international group of contributors including leading authorities on music and culture come together in this state of the art volume to investigate different ways in which music signifies Music semiotics asks what music signifies as well as how the signification process
