The Surrealist Voice Of Robert Desnos:

The Surrealist Voice of Robert Desnos Mary Ann Caws,1977 This study of Robert Desnos poet novelist dream writer critic introduces to the English reading public one of the foremost representatives of the French surrealist movement Dr Caws presents Desnos within the framework of his surrealist contemporaries then examines his criticism his theoretical work on the cinema and the two novels and poetry he wrote before his break with surrealism in 1929 Using thematic interpretation and linguistic analysis Dr Caws skillfully comments on Desnos style structures and images Particular attention is given to his poetry as it moves from verbal games and grammatical deformations toward a more complex poetry of love An excellent series of brief textual analyses explores his experiments with language and his obsession with silence and reveals how the early novels and poems simultaneously create and destroy their own sublimely conceived myths The volume contains numerous translations including several previously untranslated poems six automatic drawings a few manuscript pages and a brief sketch of Desnos tragic life inside cover flap

The Voice Robert Desnos,2004 In the 60 years since his death the great French surrealist poet Robert Desnos has become one of the most accomplished lyricists of the 20th century His name has become synonymous with artistic personal and political freedom He was the last of the Romantics and the most passionate

Robert Desnos Marie-Claire Barnet,Eric Robertson,Nigel Saint,2006 Ce n est pas la po sie qui doit tre libre c est le po te A legendary figure within the Surrealist movement Robert Desnos 1900 1945 has left a unique legacy as a poet of distinction as a dormeur veill revered by his fellow Surrealists and as a free spirit par excellence In celebrating Desnos s unique creative voice this book re evaluates his prominence within and beyond the Surrealist movement reappraises his status as a poet and sheds new light on his contribution to the literary and cultural life of his age The essays in the volume reflect the ongoing vitality and relevance of Desnos s poetry and the originality of his contribution to the various other forms of expression in which he excelled journalism short stories script writing and song writing Desnos s extensive writings on art and artists his active involvement in avant garde film and his close associations with a number of renowned painters are also addressed This fresh look at Desnos s activities and contexts includes an interview with the artist Georges Malkine s daughter Fern Malkine Falvey and a study of the memoirs of Desnos s wife Youki The volume closes with a rare collection of journalistic writings by Desnos which appeared in Le Soir in the late 1920s and have never appeared in print since their original publication

Robert Desnos, Surrealism, and the Marvelous in Everyday Life Katharine Conley,2003-01-01 He stayed with the official surrealist movement in Paris for only six years but was pivotal during that time in shaping the surrealist notion of transforming the world through radical experiments with language and art After leaving the group

Surrealist Look Mary Ann Caws, 1997 The emotional charge Surrealism extended to the objects of its encounter makes itself felt as at least philosophically erotic This charged look determines the atmosphere around the Surrealist text and its encounters in the world of art and the world it made into art In this attempt to make sense of the way Surrealism sees conceals poses and stares at its own self and the selves of others the author examines the decors games portraits transformations and mirrorings that establish Surrealism's links to Baroque forms of representation A Cinematic Artist Kim Knowles, 2009 The American artist Man Ray was one of the most influential figures of the historical avant garde contributing significantly to the development of both Dadaism and Surrealism Whilst his pioneering work in photography assured him international acclaim his activity in other areas notably film is to this day both unknown and undervalued During the 1920s Man Ray made four short experimental films and collaborated on a host of other projects with people such as Marcel Duchamp Fernand Léger René Clair and Hans Richter These works along with a series of cinematic essays and home movies made during the 1920s and 1930s represent the most important contribution to the development of an alternative mode of filmmaking in the early twentieth century This book explores Man Ray's cinematic interactions from the perspective of his interdisciplinary artistic sensibility creating links between film photography painting poetry music architecture dance and sculpture By exposing his preoccupation with form and his ambiguous relationship with the politics and aesthetics of the Dada and Surrealist movements the author paints an intimate and complex portrait of Man Ray the filmmaker

Surrealism, History and Revolution Simon Baker, 2007 This book is a new account of the surrealist movement in France between the two world wars It examines the uses that surrealist artists and writers made of ideas and images associated with the French Revolution describing a complex relationship between surrealism's avant garde revolt and its powerful sense of history and heritage Focusing on both texts and images by key figures such as Louis Aragon Georges Bataille Jacques André Boiffard André Breton Robert Desnos Max Ernst Max Morise and Man Ray this book situates surrealist material in the wider context of the literary and visual arts of the period through the theme of revolution It raises important questions about the politics of representing French history literary and political memorial spaces monumental representations of the past and critical responses to them imaginary portraiture and revolutionary spectatorship The study shows that a full understanding of surrealism requires a detailed account of its attitude to revolution and that understanding this surrealist concept of revolution means accounting for the complex historical imagination at its heart

Unica Zürn Esra Plumer, 2016-02-26 Diagnosed with schizophrenia in the 1950s German writer and artist Unica Zürn produced a wealth of remarkable textual and visual material within psychiatric institutions across Germany and France While Zürn is often discussed in relation to her partner the controversial artist Hans Bellmer this innovative book moves beyond the familiar model of the overlooked significant other and re-introduces her as a member of the French Surrealist group This is the first monograph on the life and work of the Unica Zürn in English Esra Plumer presents Zürn's life and work in light of the artist's individual experiences with

WWII Post war Surrealism and mental illness at the same time revealing wider aspects of her artistic practice in relation to her contemporaries She also reveals how the techniques of anagrams and automatism writing and drawing methods designed to unlock the subconscious mind form the pillars of Z rn s artistic creative output which carry her work into the wider theoretical circles of psychoanalytic theory and post structuralist thought French Xx , Acoustic Properties Tom McEnaney,2017-06-15 Acoustic Properties Radio Narrative and the New Neighborhood of the Americas discovers the prehistory of wireless culture It examines both the coevolution of radio and the novel in Argentina Cuba and the United States from the early 1930s to the late 1960s and the various populist political climates in which the emerging medium of radio became the chosen means to produce the voice of the people Based on original archival research in Buenos Aires Havana Paris and the United States the book develops a literary media theory that understands sound as a transmedial phenomenon and radio as a transnational medium Analyzing the construction of new social and political relations in the wake of the United States 1930s Good Neighbor Policy Acoustic Properties challenges standard narratives of hemispheric influence through new readings of Richard Wright s cinematic work in Argentina Severo Sarduy s radio plays in France and novels by John Dos Passos Manuel Puig Raymond Chandler and Carson McCullers Alongside these writers the book also explores Che Guevara and Fidel Castro s Radio Rebelde FDR s fireside chats F l i x Caignet s invention of the radionovela in Cuba Evita Per n s populist melodramas in Argentina Orson Welles s experimental New Deal radio Cuban and U S radio wars and the 1960s African American activist Robert F Williams s proto black power Radio Free Dixie From the doldrums of the Great Depression to the tumult of the Cuban Revolution Acoustic Properties illuminates how novelists in the radio age converted writing into a practice of listening transforming realism as they struggled to channel and shape popular power

Surrealism at Play Susan Laxton,2019-02-14 In Surrealism at Play Susan Laxton writes a new history of surrealism in which she traces the centrality of play to the movement and its ongoing legacy For surrealist artists play took a consistent role in their aesthetic as they worked in with and against a post World War I world increasingly dominated by technology and functionalism Whether through exquisite corpse drawings Man Ray s rayographs or Joan Mir s visual puns surrealists became adept at developing techniques and processes designed to guarantee aleatory outcomes In embracing chance as the means to produce unforeseeable ends they shifted emphasis from final product to process challenging the disciplinary structures of industrial modernism As Laxton demonstrates play became a primary method through which surrealism refashioned artistic practice everyday experience and the nature of subjectivity Dada Surrealism ,1986 Love and Sexuality Sarah F. Donachie,Kim Harrison,2005 The papers collected in this volume are selected from the proceedings of the Love and Sexuality conference held at the University of Leeds in 2002 They bring together a cross section of new directions in the study of love and sexuality currently being explored in French Studies The central focus of the collection is the representation of love desire erotica and sexuality in the couple in particular in relation to depictions of women The contributions share a common concern with problematising issues of love and sexuality across various disciplines focusing on literary texts cinema gender studies theatre studies history visual iconography and cultural studies and ranging from the sixteenth century to the present day
