Skovoroda,2012-08-01 Grigori Savvich Skovoroda is the person that all philosophers wish to become He was a mendicant teacher nomad and Christian humanist and the exceptional talents he possessed provided him the means for success as he preached his version of Christian humanism He had a profound mind phenomenal memory and played several musical instruments Along with knowing the Russian and Ukrainian languages Skovoroda was fluent in Hebrew German Latin and Greek and translated works of Cicero and Plutarch from Greek into Ukrainian He also had a photographic memory of the Bible Skovoroda traveled on foot southern Russia and eastern Ukraine for some 30 years influencing every person he met and household he visited and compiling a library of compositions of his version of Christian humanism His memory and influence endures to the present This volume contains a biography analysis of his philosophy and a translation into English of several selections of his work Satire in Narrative Frank Palmeri,2014-08-04 Virtually all theories of satire define it as a criticism of contemporary society Some argue that satire criticizes the present in favor of a standard of values that has been superseded and thus that satire is generally backward looking and conservative While this is often true of poetic satire in this study Frank Palmeri asserts that narrative satire performs a different function that it parodies both the established view of the world and that of its opponents offering its own distinctive critical perspective This theory of satire builds on the idea of dialogical parody in the work of Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin while revising Bakhtin's estimate of carnival In Palmeri's view the carnivalesque offers only an inverted mirror image of authoritative discourse while parodic narrative satire suggests an alternative to both the official world and its inverted opposite Palmeri applies this theory of narrative satire to five works of world literature each of which has generated sharp controversy about the genre to which it rightly belongs Petronius

Satyricon Jonathan Swift's A Tale of a Tub Edward Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Herman Melville's The Confidence Man and Thomas Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 He analyzes the features that link these works and shows how the changing pairs of alternatives that are parodied in these satires reflect changes in the terms of social and cultural oppositions Satire in Narrative will appeal to comparatists specialists in eighteenth century and American literature and others interested in theories of genre and the relations between literary forms and social history Mines Register, 1914
