Narrative Performances of Mothering in South Asian Diasporic Fiction Sarah Knor, 2022-12-30 Examining a range of South Asian Anglophone diasporic fiction and poetry this monograph opens a new dialogue between diaspora studies and gender studies It shows how discourses of diaspora benefit from re examining their own critical relation to concepts of the maternal and the motherland Rather than considering maternity as a fixed or naturally given category it challenges essentialist conceptions and explores mothering as a performative practice which actively produces discursive meaning This innovative approach also involves an investigation of central metaphors in nationalist and diasporic rhetorics bringing critical attention to the strategies they employ and the unique aesthetic forms they produce

Metaphors of Multilingualism

Rainer Guldin, 2020-03-27 Metaphors of Multilingualism explores changing attitudes towards multilingualism by focusing on shifts both in the choice and in the use of metaphors Rainer Guldin uses linguistics philosophy literature literary theory and related disciplines to trace the radical redefinition of multilingualism that has taken place over the last decades This overall change constitutes a paradigmatic shift However despite the emergence of the new paradigm the traditional monolingual point of view is still significantly influencing present day attitudes towards multilingualism Consequently the emergent paradigm has to be studied in close connection with its predecessor This book is the first extensive attempt to provide a critical overview of the key metaphors that organize current perceptions of multilingualism Instead of an exhaustive list of possible metaphors of multilingualism the emphasis is on three closely interrelated and overlapping clusters that play a central role in both paradigms organic metaphors of the body kinship and gender metaphors as well as spatial metaphors The examples are taken from different languages among them French German Chinese Japanese Spanish and Brazilian Portuguese This is ground breaking reading for scholars and researchers in the fields of linguistics literature philosophy media studies anthropology history and cultural studies
