Kelly James Clark,2023-12-06 Religious believers are often commanded to love like God On classical accounts God seems a poor model for human beings an immutable and impassable being seems incapable of the kind of episodic emotion sympathy empathy that seems required for the best sorts of human love Models more conducive to human love on the other hand are often rejected because they seem to limit God s power and glory This Element looks first at God and then divine love within the Abrahamic traditions Islam Christianity and Judaism It will then turn to love and the problem of hell which is argued as primarily a problem for Christians The author discusses the kind of love each tradition asks of humans and wonders given recent work in the relevant cognitive and social sciences if such love is even humanly possible This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core A Dictionary of Hymnology, Setting Forth the Origin and History of Christian Hymns of
