The Suit Can Themba:

The Suit Can Themba, Chris Van Wyk, 1994 The Heinemann Book of South African Short Stories Denis Hirson, Martin Trump, 1994 All by writers who spent their formative years in South Africa this diverse range of short stories spans from the end of World War II when the National Party was on the upsurge to the early 1990s when the legal framework of apartheid was abolished the ANC was legalized and Mandela was released The Suit, 1994 New York Magazine, 1997-07-28 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Writing South Africa Derek Attridge, Rosemary Jolly, 1998-01-22 During the final years of the apartheid era and the subsequent transition to democracy South African literary writing caught the world's attention as never before Writers responded to the changing political situation and its daily impact on the country's inhabitants with works that recorded or satirised state enforced racism explored the possibilities of resistance and rebuilding and creatively addressed the vexed question of literature's relation to politics and ethics Writing South Africa offers a window on the literary activity of this extraordinary period that conveys its range going well beyond a handful of world renowned names and its significance for anyone interested in the impact of decolonisation and democratisation on the cultural sphere It brings together for the first time discussions by some of the most distinguished South African novelists poets and dramatists with those of leading commentators based in South Africa Britain and North America The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature The South African Short Story in English,

1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

House of Truth & Bloke and His American Bantu Siphiwo Mahala, 2025-02-01 Siphiwo Mahala delves into the lives of iconic figures from South Africa's tumultuous past in this remarkable collection of plays The collection opens with The House of Truth which explores the complexity of Can Themba a fearless journalist playwright and poet living under an oppressive apartheid regime The one man play weaves together elements of Themba's life and career recreating the excitement and pathos of the DRUM era South Africa's first magazine for a black audience and his resident neighborhood Sophiatown in Johannesburg before it was destroyed by apartheid legislation Themba is brought back to life as an ordinary person with human flaws and attributes both tragic and inspirational In the second play Bloke and His American Bantu Mahala brings to life the extraordinary lives of Bloke Modisane a South African writer exiled in London and Langston Hughes the renowned American poet This two hander play celebrates their remarkable camaraderie and intellectual exchange Through a reimagined correspondence the play deftly explores how a simple friendship blossomed into a catalyst for international solidarity and cultural exchange across continents from Africa to the UK to America As a whole the plays explore the intersections of identity creativity and resistance With wit poise and unflinching honesty they bring to life the triumphs and struggles of these remarkable men who left an indelible mark on their worlds and celebrate the human spirit's capacity to persevere inspire and uplift

A Century of South African Theatre Loren Kruger, 2019-11-28 Theatre is not part of our vocabulary Sipho Sepamla's provocation in 1981 the year of famous anti apartheid play Woza Albert prompts the response yes indeed it is A Century of South African Theatre demonstrates the impact of theatre and other performances pageants concerts sketches workshops and performance art over the last hundred years Its coverage includes African responses to pro British pageants celebrating white Union in 1910 such as the Emancipation Centenary of the abolition of British colonial slavery in 1934 organized by Griffiths Motsieloa and HIE Dhlomo through anti apartheid testimonial theatre by Athol Fugard Maishe Maponya Gcina Mhlophe and many others right up to the present dramatization of state capture inequality and state violence in today s unevenly democratic society where government has promised much but delivered little Building on Loren Kruger s personal observations of forty years as well as her published research A Century of South African Theatre provides theoretical coordinates from institution to public sphere to syncretism in performance in order to highlight South Africa s changing engagement with the world from the days of Empire through the apartheid era to the multi lateral and multi lingual networks of the 21st century The final chapters use the Constitution s injunction to improve wellbeing as a prompt to examine the dramaturgy of new problems especially AIDS and domestic violence as well as the better known performances in and around the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Kruger critically evaluates internationally known theatre makers including the signature collaborations between animator designer William Kentridge and Handspring Puppet Company and highlights the local and transnational impact of major post apartheid companies such as Magnet Theatre

An African Quilt Barbara H. Solomon, W. Reginald Rampone Jr., 2012-12-31 Encompassing many different visions of Africa the stories in this comprehensive collection feature characters struggling to survive grinding poverty tyrannical governments cultural upheavals and disintegrating relationships Reflecting a continent with a tragic history An African Quilt depicts a place where even everyday life is extraordinary and the continent s history changes what it means to be a woman an employee a couple a passerby and of course a citizen Revealed through the backdrop of postcolonial Africa the struggles within these stories resonate beyond their context and appeal to every reader s sense of what it means to be human Includes Stories by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nadine Gordimer Winner of the Nobel Prize Bessie Head Doris Lessing Winner of the Nobel Prize Ngugi wa Thiong'o and Others

Literary Transactions in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2025-04-03 A representative overview of some of the most pressing concerns in contemporary literary criticism in South Africa demonstrating literary form s shaping power in the interpretation of politically contentious content Rather than pressing literature into the service of a political cause or programme this study s purpose its politics of interpretation is to open literature to the potential of human experience in both the personal and the public life The society of focus South Africa is a society of political contestation Instead of prioritizing the what of contestation however Michael Chapman explores contestation through the how of the literary work In sharp transactions between an intransitivity of form and a compulsion to communicate the book elucidates an ethics of aesthetics in J M Coetzee and Nadine Gordimer and the best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell s poetry It also asks Can Themba s style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re visited in a contemporary context of gender based abuse Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtutuzeli Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary women s poetry a poetry which in its play on identities and identifications looks both inwards to its locality and outwards to the globe Alert to both South Africa s colonial past and its assertions of today Literary Transactions in South Africa pursues the challenge of interpreting a literature of disjuncture between Africa and the West or the South and the North The World of Can Themba Can Themba,1985 Hospitality and Hostility in the Multilingual Global Village Kathleen Thorpe,Anette Horn,Alida Poeti,V,ronique Tadj,2014-08-01 This interdisciplinary international and multi lingual collection of essays explores a broad range of issues related to hospitality and hostility in literary and cultural contexts from antiquity to the present Insightful theoretical and historical discussions undergird richly detailed particular studies The central focus unifies the diverse pieces which are original well researched and reasoned and clearly written A solid contribution to scholarship in several fields including linguistics anthropology and Internet culture the volume is also enjoyable to read Its lively and appealing pieces on recent novels and contemporary trends lend a fresh and contemporary feel Prof Pamela S Saur Lamar University Texas The New York Times Theater Reviews 1997-1998 Times Books,2001-01-02 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall,Isabel Hofmeyr,2024-11-01 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences Puppetry: A Reader in Theatre Practice Penny Francis,2020-05-15 In this sophisticated and compelling introduction to puppet theatre Penny Francis offers engaging contemporary perspectives on this universal art form She provides an account of puppetry's different facets from its demands and techniques through its uses and abuses to its history and philosophy Now recognized as a valuable and powerful medium used in the making of most forms of theatre and filmed work those referring to Puppetry will discover something of the roots dramaturgy literature and techniques of this visual art form The book gathers together material from an international selection of sources bringing puppet theatre to life for the student practitioner and amateur alike Teaching the Media

Andrew Hart, 2013-12-16 In TEACHING THE MEDIA INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES Andrew Hart initiates a challenging dialogue about approaches to Media teaching in the major English speaking nations of the world including the United States Canada the United Kingdom Australia and South Africa By animating actual lessons and the considered views of classroom practitioners TEACHING THE MEDIA encourages readers to develop new perspectives on Media teaching to examine approaches that differ from their own and to reflect critically on their own practices with a view to understanding them more fully and enhancing their effectiveness in the classroom Based on original research that began in England in the early 1990s this is the first international comparative study to focus on Media Education in English speaking countries It systematically examines classroom strategies for Media teaching in the light of the major theoretical paradigms which have emerged globally over the last 50 years It analyses the rich diversity of different educational concerns goals and classroom practices through a series of national studies of teachers and lessons As a result not only do we see how Media is actually taught in range of classroom contexts but existing models of Media teaching can now be more precisely critiqued and made more accessible for further research and development The World in an Orange Irene Stephanou, Leila Henriques, 2011-01-04

Barney Simon 1932-1995 was the legendary artistic director writer and co creator of the Market Theatre in Johannesburg one of the most influential and distinguished theatres in South Africa and the world He workshopped wrote and directed unforgettable and pertinent plays in his quest to hold a mirror up high to society These works stand as a testament to South Africa's recent history Here are 80 testaments from international artists about Barney's often mysterious creative process Barney was especially known for his famous orange exercise Through a single orange he communicated lessons of detail care and respect With full color illustrations throughout this is an essential book for students and teachers of theatrical expression and indeed for anyone who strives to understand their own voice With the passing of a decade of democracy in South Africa The World in an Orange is a record of the last years of apartheid and the role of the arts community in bringing it down

The South Africa Reader Clifton Crais, Thomas V. McClendon, 2013-12-10 The South Africa Reader is an extraordinarily rich guide to the history culture and politics of South Africa With more than eighty absorbing selections the Reader provides many perspectives on the country's diverse peoples its first two decades as a democracy and the forces that have shaped its history and continue to pose challenges to its future particularly violence inequality and racial discrimination Among the selections are folktales passed down through the centuries statements by seventeenth century Dutch colonists the songs of mine workers a widow's testimony before the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and a photo essay featuring the acclaimed work of Santu Mofokeng. Cartoons, songs and fiction are juxtaposed with iconic documents such as The Freedom Charter adopted in 1955 by the African National Congress and its allies and Nelson Mandela's Statement from the Dock in 1964. Cacophonous voices: those of slaves and indentured workers, African chiefs and kings, presidents and revolutionaries invite readers into ongoing debates about South Africa's past and present and what exactly it means to be South African.
