Born to Walk Dan Rubinstein, 2015-04-01 The case for getting back on our feet The humble act of putting one foot in front of the other transcends age geography culture and class and is one of the most economical and environmentally responsible modes of transit Yet with our modern fixation on speed this healthy pedestrian activity has been largely left behind At a personal and professional crossroads writer editor and obsessive walker Dan Rubinstein travelled throughout the U S U K and Canada to walk with people who saw the act not only as a form of transportation and recreation but also as a path to a better world There are no magic bullet solutions to modern epidemics like obesity anxiety alienation and climate change But what if there is a simple way to take a step in the right direction Combining fascinating reportage eye opening research and Rubinstein's own discoveries Born to Walk explores how far this ancient habit can take us how much repair is within range and guarantees that you'll never again take walking for granted

A Space of Their Own Katie Baker, Naomi Walker, 2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women s rights in society It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space Therefore it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature for example in gender studies cultural geography place writing and digital humanities The work that Heine has forged and generates research that is both complementary and highly original This academic ritual of assembling a liber amicorum is based on the presumption that sterling scholarship should be honored by conscientious scholarship In the festive spirit of a Festschrift this anthology consists of the resounding voices of Heine and his colleagues It is an indispensable collection for students and scholars interested in Japanese religion and Chinese culture and for those researching Zen Buddhist history and philosophy

Gathering Place Mary Colwell,2023-04-13 SHORTLISTED FOR THE EDWARD STANFORD TRAVEL BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 Deeply poetic CAROLINE LUCAS MP A masterpiece of storytelling NICK MAYHEW SMITH Mary Colwell is a candle of open minded curiosity PATRICK LAURIE An unforgettable story MICHAEL MCCARTHY Mary Colwell makes a solo pilgrimage along the Camino Franc s winding through forests mountains farmland industrial sprawls and places of worship Pilgrims have always walked in times of upheaval pitching themselves against weather hunger thirst and sometimes pain as they tread the paths their ancestors once followed In the winter of 2020 author nature campaigner and veteran solo walker Mary Colwell walked a 500 mile pilgrimage along the Camino Franc s in northern Spain In a typical year many thousands of people walk this route but Mary had it virtually to herself at a unique historical moment a time of profound political change escalating climate and biodiversity emergencies and global pandemic The modern world weaves in and out of the Camino s worn trackway providing a focus for contemplation and a place for memories and experiences to gather In her delightful book Mary weaves experiences from her solo winter pilgrimage with stories from a walk millions have undertaken over the centuries Her thoughtful and at times humorous journey of body and soul includes moments of intense spirituality meetings with a demon slayer strange goings on and magical tales and Mary s exquisite descriptions of the constant backdrop of nature in all its complexity and wonder The Theory and Practice of Zen Buddhism Charles S. Ng,2022-02-15 This book brings together an impressive group of scholars to critically engage with a wide ranging and broad perspective on the historical and contemporary phenomenon of Zen The structure of the work is organized to reflect the root and branches of Zen with the root referring to important episodes in Chan Zen history within the Asian context and the branches referring to more recent development in the West In collating what has transpired in the last several decades of Chan Zen scholarship the collection recognizes and honors the scholarly accomplishments and influences of Steven Heine arguably the most important Zen scholar in the past three decades As it looks back at the intellectual horizons that this towering figure in Zen Chan studies has pioneered and developed it seeks to build on the grounds that were broken and subsequently established by Heine thereby engendering new works within this enormously important religio cultural scholarly tradition This curated Festschrift is a tribute both retrospective and prospective acknowledging the foundational

Hello World Sue Thomas, 2004-03-10 Hello World is the story of a life online Part travelogue part memoir Sue Thomas draws on her online travels as well as her physical journeys in the USA Australia Spain and England While the book is non fiction it is a direct descendent of Correspondence Thomas extraordinary novel that also deals with the synergies between digital and physical worlds Like its fictional counterpart Hello World will trigger feelings in readers of recognition and will stimulate debate on the nature of the physical in a wired world for years to come First published in 2004 This is a book about a love affair It s also a meditation on a phenomenon that has changed not just our lives but our perceptions of ourselves The Independent an essential tour guide to the poetics of time space and gender in the Information Age This book is quite simply a Baedeker to the cyber realm Carolyn Guertin engagingly and warmly written Hello World combines first person meditations with a wealth of information Highly recommended for first time users and those who want to try dipping their toes into the cyberwaters N Katherine Hayles embracing digital media for its freedom and life beyond the physical page her writings fuse the surfaces textures histories and interactions of our bodies and minds Robin Rimbaud Scanner Sue Thomas is one of the most innovation thinkers promoters and facilitators on the web Stelarc anyone who feels both seduced and appalled by the complexities of embedded technology will empathise with this account of the personal highs and lows of an intimate relationship with technology Jenny Wolmark Speaking with ease and authority earned through years of immersive investigation Sue Thomas critiques virtuality in a manner which makes this book accessible to those who are new to the networked world as well as a must read for those already there Melinda Rackham Hello World is fascinating almost hypnotic Thomas travels all over the physical world and all over the virtual world visiting sights and sites of intrinsic and historical interest She describes what she sees tells us how the experience affects her and recounts how past travelers have marked these conceptual landscapes Thomas invokes Thoreau throughout the book and the comparison is apt As Thoreau s observations of the activity around Walden Pond always told us as much about him as they did about the nature he studied so too Thomas s observations reveal much about herself The intensity of her love for cyberspace is manifest in her attentiveness to the detail of each virtual experience Tekka Thomas offers a way of being in the world that refuses hierarchies and primacies and offers us a model of an engaged and creative practice that is both virtual and real RealTime As a mix it s intense and entrancing and it demonstrates the ease with which computers electronic communications and lives all intertwine beyond the home Alan Sondheim Originally published in paperback by Raw Nerve Books Web Supplement <http://travelsinvirtuality.typepad.com/helloworld>

The Broadview Anthology of Expository

Prose - Third Canadian Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology s companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson, 2020-08-27 This book situates the film maker Patrick Keiller alongside the writers W G Sebald and Iain Sinclair as the three leading voices in English psychogeography offering new insights to key works including London The Rings of Saturn and Lights Out for the Territory Excavating social and political contexts while also providing plentiful close analysis it examines the cultivation of a distinctive affective mode or sensibility especially attuned to the cultural anxieties of the twentieth century s closing decades Landscape and Subjectivity explores motifs including essayism the reconciliation of creativity with market forces and the foregrounding of an often agonised or melancholic It asks whether the work can collectively be seen to constitute a critical theory of contemporary space and suggests that Keiller Sebald and Sinclair s contributions represent a highly significant moment in English culture s engagement with landscape environment and itself The book s analyses are fuelled by archival and topographical research and are responsive to various interdisciplinary contexts including the tradition of the English Journey the set of ideas associated with the spatial turn critical theory the so called heritage debate and more recent theorisation of the anthropocene
