1650-1850 Kevin L. Cope, 2019-04-01 With issue twenty four of 1650 1850 this annual enters its second quarter century with a new publisher a new look a new editorial board and a new commitment to intellectual and artistic exploration As the diversely inventive essays in this first issue from the Bucknell University Press demonstrate the energy and open mindedness that made 1650 1850 a success continue to intensify This first Bucknell issue includes a special feature that explores the use of sacred space in what was once incautiously called the age of reason A suite of book reviews renews the 1650 1850 legacy of full length and unbridled evaluation of the best in contemporary Enlightenment scholarship These lively and informative reviews celebrate the many years that book review editor Baerbel Czennia has served 1650 1850 and also make for an able handoff to Samara Anne Cahill of Nanyang Technological University who will edit the book review section beginning with our next volume Most important of all this issue serves as an invitation to scholars to offer their most creative and thoughtful work for consideration for publication in 1650 1850 About the annual journal 1650 1850 1650 1850 publishes essays and reviews from and about a wide range of academic disciplines literature both in English and other languages philosophy art history history religion and science Interdisciplinary in scope and approach 1650 1850 emphasizes aesthetic manifestations and applications of ideas and encourages studies that move between the arts and the sciences between the hard and the humane disciplines The editors encourage proposals for special features that bring together five to seven essays on focused themes within its historical range from the Interregnum to the end of the first generation of Romantic writers While also being open to more specialized or particular studies that match up with the general themes and goals of the journal 1650 1850 is in the first instance a journal about the artful presentation of ideas that welcomes good writing from its contributors First published in 1994 1650 1850 is currently in its 24th volume ISSN 1065 3112 Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Futurescapes, 2009-01-01 This book testifies to the growing interest in the many spaces of utopia It intends to map out on utopian and science fiction discourses some of the new and revisionist models of spatial analysis applied in Literary and Cultural Studies in recent years The aim of the volume is to side step the established generic binary of utopia and dystopia or science fiction and thus to open the analysis of utopian literature to new lines of inquiry The essays collected here propose to think of utopias not so much as fictional texts about future change and transformation but as vital elements in a cultural process through which social spatial and subjective identities are formed Utopias can thus be read as textual systems implying a distinct spatial and temporal dimension as spatial practices that tend to naturalize a cultural and social construction that of the good life the radically improved welfare state the Christian paradise the counter society etc and make that representation operational by interpellating their readers in some determinate relation to their givenness as sites of political and individual improvement This volume is of interest for all scholars and students of literature who wish to explore the ways in which utopias of the past and recent present have circulated as media of cultural exchange and homogenization as sites of cultural and linguistic appropriation and as foci for the spatial formation of national and regional identities in the English speaking world Women, Travel Writing, and Truth Clare Broome Saunders, 2014-07-17 The issue of truth has been one of the most constant complex and contentious in the cultural history of travel writing Whether the travel was undertaken in the name of exploration pilgrimage science inspiration self discovery or a combination of these elements questions of veracity and authenticity inevitably arise Women Travel and Truth is a collection of twelve essays that explore the manifold ways in which travel and truth interact in women s travel writing Essays range in date from Lady Mary Wortley Montagu in the eighteenth century to Jamaica Kincaid in the twenty first across such regions as India Italy Norway Siberia Austria the Orient the Caribbean China and Mexico Topics explored include blurred distinctions of fiction and non fiction travel writing and politics subjectivity displacement and exile Students and academics with interests in literary studies history geography history of art and modern languages will find this book an important reference

Gender and Utopia in the Eighteenth Century Brenda Tooley, 2016-04-15 Focusing on eighteenth century constructions of symbolic femininity and eighteenth century women s writing in relation to contemporary utopian discourse this volume adjusts our understanding of the utopia of the Enlightenment placing a unique emphasis on colonial utopias These essays reflect on issues related to specific configurations of utopias and utopianism by considering in detail English and French texts by both women Sarah Scott Sarah Fielding Isabelle de Charri re and men Paltock and Montesquieu The contributors ask the following questions In the influential discourses of eighteenth century utopian writing is there a place for woman and if so what or where is it How do women disrupt confirm or ground the utopian projects within which these constructs occur By posing questions about the inscription of gender in the context of eighteenth century utopian writing the contributors shed new light on the eighteenth century legacies that continue to shape contemporary views of social and political progress

Madam Britannia Emma Major, 2012 Using Britannia as a central figure this book explores the neglected relationship between women church and nation It argues that Britannia became established as an emblem of nation from 1688 and gained in importance over the following century It draws on an exciting range of material to explore the extent and significance of women s involvement in debates about the new British nation and the Church of England Discussing a wide range of printed sources including letters poetry novels plays journals sermons devotional literature political tracts and travel writing it also uses manuscript sources and frontspieces paintings drawings and graphics satire to bring to life debates about identity faith and nation Writers discussed include Elizabeth Burnet Elizabeth Carter Catherine Talbot Samuel Richardson Thomas Amory Samuel Foote Elizabeth Montagu Hester Lynch Thrale Piozzi Anna Laetitia Barbauld Hannah More along with images by William Hogarth John Flaxman Francis Hayman James Gillray and the Cruikshanks

Imagining Women's Conventual Spaces in France, 1600-1800 Barbara R. Woshinsky, 2016-12-05 Blending history and architecture with literary analysis this ground breaking study explores the convent s place in the early modern imagination The author brackets her account between two pivotal events the Council of Trent imposing strict enclosure on cloistered nuns and the French Revolution expelling them from their cloisters two centuries later In the intervening time women within convent walls were both captives and refugees from an outside world dominated by patriarchal power and discourses Yet despite locks and bars the cloister remained porous to privileged visitors Others could catch a glimpse of veiled nuns through the elaborate grills separating cloistered space from the church provoking imaginative accounts of convent life Not surprisingly the figure of the confined religious woman represents an intensified object of desire in male authored narrative The convent also spurred feminutopian discourses composed by women convents become safe houses for those fleeing bad marriages or trying to construct an ideal pastoral life as a counter model to the male dominated court or household Recent criticism has identified certain privileged spaces that early modern women made their own the ruelle the salon the hearth of fairy tale telling Woshinsky s book definitively adds the convent to this list Emotions in the Household, 1200-1900 S. Broomhall, 2007-12-14 This collection asks new questions about the household examining the kinds of positive and negative emotional scope available to household members drawn together by shared economic social and biological needs rather than by blood ties One Great Family: Domestic Relationships in Samuel Richardson's Novels Simone Höhn, 2021-01-25 This study examines concepts of morality and structures of domestic relationships in Samuel Richardson s novels situating them in the context of eighteenth century moral writings and reader reactions Based on a detailed analysis of Richardson s work this book maintains that he sought both to uphold hierarchical concepts of individual duty and to warn of the consequences if such hierarchies were abused In his final novel Richardson aimed at a synthesis between social hierarchy and individual liberty patriarchy and female self fulfilment His work albeit rooted in patriarchal values paved the way for proto feminist conceptions of female character
