Transforming Museums In The Twenty First Century:

Transforming Museums in the Twenty-first Century Graham Black, 2012-03-12 In his book Graham Black argues that museums must transform themselves if they are to remain relevant to 21st century audiences and this root and branch change would be necessary whether or not museums faced a funding crisis It is the result of the impact of new technologies and the rapid societal developments that we are all a part of and applies not just to museums but to all arts bodies and to other agents of mass communication Through comment practical examples and truly inspirational case studies this book allows the reader to build a picture of the transformed 21st century museum in practice Such a museum is focused on developing its audiences as regular users It is committed to participation and collaboration It brings together on site online and mobile provision and through social media builds meaningful relationships with its users It is not restricted by its walls or opening hours but reaches outwards in partnership with its communities and with other agencies including schools It is a haven for families learning together And at its heart lies prolonged user engagement with collections and the conversations and dialogues that these inspire The book is filled to the brim with practical examples It features an introduction that focuses on the challenges that face museums in the 21st century an analysis of population trends and their likely impact on museums boxes showing ideas models and planning suggestions to guide development examples and case studies illustrating practice in both large and small museums an up to date bibliography of landmark research including numerous websites Sitting alongside Graham Black's previous book The Engaging Museum we now have a clear vision of a museum of the future that engages stimulates and inspires the public it serves and plays an active role in promoting tolerance and understanding within and between communities

Making Museums Matter Stephen E. Weil, 2002 Weil has long been considered one of the museum community's most insightful commentators In this volume of 29 essays his overarching concern is that museums be able to earn their keep in an environment of potentially shrinking resources

Museums and the Challenge of Change Graham Black, 2020-12-29 Museums and the Challenge of Change explores the profound challenges facing museums and charts ways forward that are grounded in partnership with audiences and communities on site online and in wider society Facing new generations with growing needs and desires growing population diversity and a digital revolution the museum sector knows it must change but it has been slow to respond Drawing on the expertise and voices of practitioners from within and beyond the sector Black calls for a change of mind set and radical evolution transformation over time learning from the process rather than a big bang approach Internally a participative environment supports social interaction through active engagement with collections and content and Black includes an initial typology of participative exhibits both traditional and digital Externally the museum works in partnership with local communities and other agencies to make a real difference in response to societal challenges Black considers what this means for the management and structure of the museum emphasising that it is not possible to separate the development of a participative experience from the ways in which the museum is organised Museums and the Challenge of Change is highly practical and focused on initiatives that museums can implement swiftly and cheaply making a real impact on user engagement The book will thus be essential reading for museum practitioners and students of museum studies around the globe New Museums Mimi Zeiger, 2005 Since the opening in 1997 of the Guggenheim Bilbao designed by Frank Gehry museum architecture has enjoyed worldwide attention on an unprecedented scale That single watershed project demonstrated to municipalities that architecture has the power to transform the image of an entire city thus making the turn of the twenty first century the unofficial age of the museum building New Museums examines the boom in high design museum projects in detail beginning with the Guggenheim Bilbao s groundbreaking role in the development of contemporary museum architecture It continues with a beautifully illustrated tour of 30 examples of the most innovative and exciting museum architecture around the world including Tadao Ando s Museum of Modern Art in Fort Worth Zaha Hadid s Contemporary Arts Center in Cincinnati Renzo Piano s Nasher Sculpture Center in Dallas and many others Du vandalisme d'oeuvres d'art Anne Bessette, 2021-02-02 Les atteintes portées intentionnellement à l'intégrité d'œuvres d'art lorsqu'elles se produisent dans des musées sont porteuses d'enjeux spécifiques que cet ouvrage analyse Aujourd'hui elles sont généralement désignées par le terme de vandalisme lequel véhicule des représentations qu'il s'agit d'interroger Cette étude inédite prend appui sur l'analyse d'un corpus de cas de vandalisme perpétrés entre 1970 et 2014 sur des œuvres exposées dans des musées d'art en Europe et en Amérique du Nord Dans une perspective sociologique elle s'attache à examiner les ressorts de ces actes mais aussi les diverses réactions qu'ils suscitent L'analyse de la réception sociale du vandalisme constitue une voie d'accès privilégiée pour appréhender certains mécanismes de disqualification y compris au sein du champ artistique Certains de ces gestes sont en effet réalisés dans une optique de création ou de dialogue artistique ils font ici l'objet d'une attention particulière en raison de ce qu'ils peuvent mettre en lumière du fonctionnement du milieu de l'art Prix scientifique L'Harmattan S.rie Doctorat Tate Modern: The Handbook Tate Modern (Gallery), 2016-09-20 Published to accompany the opening of a major new expansion to Tate Modern in summer 2016 this handbook offers a fascinating look at the gallery's acclaimed and growing collection of international modern and contemporary art An essay by Frances Morris summarises the history of the collection offering a unique insight into the considerations involved in building and shaping a national collection Matthew Gale describes some of the changing themes in the gallery displays The A-Z section of artists includes not only many of the most popular works in the collection such as Matisse's The snail or Dalí's Lobster telephone but also features recent acquisitions from across the world More than simply a guide to one of the most important museums in its field the book is also an invaluable tool to the understanding of modern art and artists Education for the Twenty-first Century International Commission on Education for the Twenty-first Century, 1998 Containing a selection of texts on education prepared during the work of the International Commission on Education for the Twenty first Century this volume bears witness to some paradoxes faced by education to reconcile divergent aims and trends to embody both continuity and renewal to encourage conformity and innovation These papers are intended to complement existing literature to respond to questions that arose in the course of the Commission's work and to illuminate specific issues that cross disciplines
