Ewen Bowie, 2018-03-19 Recently the importance for Herodotus work of contemporary medical and sophistic thought and techniques of argument has been widely recognised as long had been his dependence on and difference from earlier geographical and ethnographic writing This volume focuses on the place of these interests in his investigatory techniques and sets them alongside his many narrative skills from superficially traditional battle narrative and reworking of Greek or non Greek traditions that border on myth to the structuring of narrative by highlighting the life of objects and addresses such fundamental issues as how he chooses between competing explanations and how far he valued truth The book tackles many of the basic issues that confront any attempt to understand Herodotus work Historical Experience David Carr, 2021-03-30 This volume brings together a collection of recent essays on the philosophy and theory of history This is a field of lively interdisciplinary discussion and research to which historians philosophers and theorists of culture and literature have contributed The author is a philosopher by training and his inspiration comes primarily from the continental phenomenological tradition Thus the influence of Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Ricoeur can be discerned here This background opens up a unique perspective on the issues under discussion Phenomenology differs from other philosophical approaches like metaphysics and epistemology Phenomenology asks of anything that exists or may exist how is it given how does it enter our experience what is our experience of it like Very broadly we can say phenomenology is about experience At first glance this approach may seem ill suited to history In our language history usually means either 1 what happened i e past events or 2 our knowledge of what happened We can't experience past events and whatever knowledge we have of them must come from other sources memory testimony physical traces But the author maintains that we actually do experience historical events and these essays explain how this is so Sitting at the intersection of philosophy and history and divided into three parts Historicity Narrative and Time Teleology and History and Embodiment and Experience this is the ideal volume for those interested in experience from a philosophical and historical perspective Philosophy of Religion and the African American Experience John H. McClendon III, 2017-07-03 Most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white Western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large The fact remains that Howard Thurman James H Cone and William R Jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion Yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion Neglect and ignorance of African American Studies is widespread in the academy By including chapters on Thurman Cone and Jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna Towards a New History for the Egyptian Old Kingdom Peter Der Manuelian, Thomas Schneider, 2015-10-20 The Pyramid Age represents the first of several highpoints in ancient Egypt's long history But critical questions remain about the period its social structure and economic organization and the long term implications of its artistic achievements On the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the Journal of Egyptian History The University of British Columbia Harvard University and Brill Academic Publishers Boston held a conference at Harvard University on April 26 2012 A distinguished group of Egyptological scholars from around the world gathered to consider new perspectives on the Pyramid Age the results are presented here Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age

Christian Langer,2021-09-20 Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age explores the political economy of deportations in New Kingdom Egypt ca 1550 1070 BCE from an interdisciplinary angle The analysis of ancient Egyptian primary source material and the international correspondence of the time draws a comprehensive picture of the complex and far reaching policies The dataset reveals their geographic scope economic and demographic impact in Egypt and abroad as well as their interconnection with territorial expansion international relations and labour management The supply chain profiting institutions and individuals in Egypt as the well as the labour tasks origins and the composition of the deportees are discussed in detail A comparative analytical framework integrates the Egyptian policies with a review of deportation discourses as well as historical premodern and modern cases and enables a global and diachronic understanding of the topic The study is thus the first systematic investigation of deportations in ancient Egyptian history and offers new insights into Egyptian governance that revise previous assessments of the role of forced migration und unfree labour in ancient Egyptian society and their long term effects The Roman Empire in Context Johann P. Defining All-Israel in Chronicles Louis C. Jonker,2016-05-17 In this book Louis C Jonker considers more sophisticated and nuanced models for applying the heuristic lens of identity in the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible book of Chronicles Not only does he investigate the potential and limitations of different sociological models for this purpose but the author also provides a more nuanced analysis of the socio historical context of origin of late Persian period biblical literature by distinguishing between four levels of socio historic existence in this period It is shown that varying power relations were in operation on these different levels which contributed to a multi levelled process of identity negotiation Louis C Jonker shows the value of the chosen methodological approach in his analysis of Chronicles but also suggests that it holds potential for the investigation of other Hebrew Bible corpora Chronicles and the Politics of Davidic Restoration David

Janzen,2017-05-18 David Janzen argues that the Book of Chronicles is a document with a political message as well as a theological one and moreover that the book s politics explain its theology The author of Chronicles was part of a 4th century

B C E group within the post exilic Judean community that hoped to see the Davidides restored to power and he or she composed this work to promote a restoration of this house to the position of a client monarchy within the Persian Empire Once this is understood as the political motivation for the work s composition the reasons behind the Chronicler s particular alterations to source material and emphasis of certain issues becomes clear The doctrine of immediate retribution the role of all Israel at important junctures in Judah s past the promotion of Levitical status and authority the virtual joint reign of David and Solomon and the decision to begin the narrative with Saul s death can all be explained as ways in which the Chronicler tries to assure the 4th century assembly that a change in local government to Davidic client rule would benefit them It is not necessary to argue that Chronicles is either pro Davidic or pro Levitical it is both and the attention Chronicles pays to the Levites is done in the service of winning over a group within the temple personnel to the pro Davidic cause just as many of its other features were designed to appeal to other interest groups within the assembly

The Rise of Civilizations Concerning Vedic Knowledge Henry Romano, Between 3300 and 2900 BC archaeologists believe that civilization the rise of Sumeria the Indus Valley Civilization and Egypt marked the beginning of complex cities The Neolithic Revolution when agriculture animal domestication pottery and the plow came together seems not to hold together as we explored in the final chapter of descending Treta Yuga There had already been millennia of critical discoveries and developments Why then the abrupt shift to city living stratified societies and overproduction of food and other goods for trade or export Archaeologists believe that man could finally do these things that he was using recent inventions to an additional advantage Our study of the yugas tells us that man suddenly wanted to do these things that he was using innovations known for millennia in new ways to suit his new motivation Several large cities existed before descending Dwapara Yuga but a new breed of city sprang up with Dwapara Yuga These were larger and more complex and built around commerce Many had shared granaries artisans districts and marketplaces and were typically made on trade routes along rivers and coasts We also see these cities first significant division of labor and societal stratification Artisans scribes and traders all became increasingly common occupations Furthermore there was of course the tax collector As a result governments began levying taxes on commerce as they had already levied tariffs on agriculture Sumeria and the city of Eridu are credited with being the first of the trend Urdu is believed to have risen along the banks of the Euphrates River around 3300 BC The famous city of Ur and dozens of others sprang up in the Tigris and Euphrates Valleys over the next 300 400 years and Babylon was not far behind
