A Child's World Mary H. Lystad, 1974 This book investigates children's stories and drawings from first grade when schoolwork in communications is still new through fifth grade when the mechanics have been learned and are almost automatic when self consciousness rears its uncertain head The purpose of the study is threefold First it explores developmental patterns in the substantive content of children's free expressions what they see and how they see it Second it explores differences in developmental patterns by race and sex demographic characteristics of considerable importance in the formation of attitudes and values Third it explores differences between written expressions by children and written expressions for children at various age levels Japan and American Children's Books Sybille Jagusch, 2021-06-18 Drawing from the Library of Congress's massive collection this volume takes readers on a fascinating and informative journey through nearly 200 years of American children's books and periodicals depicting life in Japan from fanciful travelogues full of exotic stereotypes to serious works about wartime atrocities Published by Rutgers University Press in association with the Library of Congress Children's Emotions in Europe, 1500 - 1900 Jeroen J. H. Dekker, 2024-04-04 This book gives you the historical sensation of coming face to face with the bodily expression and regulation of children's emotions over time The study does this by encouraging you to look through the eyes of well known artists like Albrecht Dürer, Domenico Ghirlandaio, Jan Steen, Antony van Dyck, Rembrandt and Titian in early modern Europe and Jean Baptiste Simon Chardin, Thomas Lawrence, Jean Honor Fragonard, Philipp Otto Runge, Willem Bartel van der Kooi, Paul Gauguin, Auguste Renoir and Jozef Israëls in the late 18th and 19th centuries These sources are supplemented by works from less famous artists as well as popular emblem books, child advice manuals, observations from the emerging child sciences and personal documents Jeroen Dekker observes children's emotions mainly in the child's world and in the domestic emotional space and connects them with history's ongoing underlying discourse on education and the emotions This discourse was developed by theologians, philosophers and moralists like Augustine, Aquinas, Erasmus, Descartes, Jacob Cats, John Locke and Jean Jacques Rousseau by Romantic educationalists like Friedrich Fröbel and Ellen Key and by scientists like Charles Darwin and William James who emphasized the biological instead of the moral fundament of children's emotions The story of children's emotions is told in the context of cultural movements like the Renaissance, Humanism, the Reformation, the Enlightenment, Romanticism and the starting Age of Child Science Children's Emotions in Europe 1500-1900 crucially highlights the continuous co-existence of regulation oriented and child oriented educational views on children's emotions

Children's Literature Collections Keith O'Sullivan, Pádraic Whyte, 2017-05-19 This book provides scholars both national and international with a basis for advanced research in children's literature in collections Examining books for children published across five centuries gathered from the collections in Dublin this unique volume advances causes in collecting, librarianship, education and children's literature studies more generally It facilitates processes of discovery and recovery that present various pathways for researchers with diverse interests in children's books to engage with collections From book histories through bookselling information on collectors and histories of education to close text analyses it is evident that there are various approaches to researching collections In this volume three dominant approaches emerge history and canonicity, author and text ideals and institutions Through its focus on varied materials from fiction to textbooks this volume illuminates how cities can articulate a vision of children's literature through particular collections and institutional practices

Childhood in Modern Europe Colin Heywood, 2018-09-06 This invaluable introduction to the history of childhood in both Western and Eastern Europe c. 1700-2000 seeks to give a voice to children as well as adults wherever possible It addresses a number of key topics including conceptions of childhood ideas about family life culture welfare schooling and work

Aspects and Issues in the History of Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 1995-06-13 The contributors to this collection of essays address children's literature as an art form rather than an educational instrument as has been the traditional approach Scholars from 10 different countries present a variety of approaches to the history of children's literature including views on sociological semiotic and intertextual models of its evolution Other issues explored include influence and interaction between stories and their countries of origin This strong presentation of international perspectives on children's literature will be a valuable resource for scholars of children's and comparative literature

A Sea of Upturned Faces Winifred Ragsdale, 1989 Authors librarians and critics from Pacific Rim countries share national and universal aspects of children's literature in the third of a series
