With Oil In Their Lamps With Oil In Their Lamps:

The Four Gospels John P. Scott, 1996-09 Spirituality for the Solitary Mark G. Boyer, 2023-06-15 This is a book about spirituality for the solitary those people who live alone In the past they were known as hermits eremites and anchorites today they are known as pioneers mountain men and women widows widowers and people who choose to live alone in the country or in the city They spend their days like other ordinary people taking care of daily chores but also spending some time in prayer and meditation The solitary life is alive and well and it appears in all world religions The solitary seeks solitude for prayer meditation self awareness and personal development Living alone in a house or apartment begins to transform one's life a person sets off on the path of purpose the path of integrity the path of transcendence that lifts his or her heart mind and spirit to the divine presence God who transforms more and more as the solitary dives deeper and deeper This book provides an in depth exploration of spirituality for the solitary along with eight part exercises designed to further enhance solitary spirituality Included are prayers psalms in contemporary English and celebrations using natural things such as water oil and fire

The Gospel of Matthew Daniel J. Harrington, 1991 Matthew wrote his Gospel from his perspective as a Jew It is with sensitivity to this perspective that Father Harrington undertakes this commentary on the Gospel of Matthew After an introduction he provides a literal translation of each section in Matthew's Gospel and explains the textual problems philological difficulties and other matters in the notes He then presents a literary analysis of each text content form use of sources structure examines the text against its Jewish background situates it in the context of Matthew's debate with other first century Jews and reflects on its significance for Christian theology and Christian Jewish relations Bibliographies direct the reader to other important modern studies
