#RhodesMustFall Nyamnjoh, Francis B., 2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the country s universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship #RhodesMustFall B.

after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt The Black Consciousness Reader Baldwin Ndaba, Therese Owen, Masego Panyane, Rabbie Sermula, Janet Smith, 2019-04-25 There is a current revival of Black Consciousness as political and student movements around the world as well as academics and campaigners working in decolonization reconfigure the continued struggle for socio economic revolution Yet the roots of Black Consciousness and its relation to other movements such as Black Lives Matter have only begun to be explored Black Consciousness has deep connections to the struggle against apartheid The Black Consciousness Reader is an essential collection of history culture philosophy and meaning of Black Consciousness by some of the thinkers artists and activists who developed it in order to finally bring revolution to South Africa A contribution to the world s Black cultural archive it examines how the proper acknowledgement of Blackness brings a greater love a broader sweep of heroes and a wider understanding of intellectual and political influences Although the legendary murdered activist Steve Biko is a strong figure within this history the book documents many other significant international Black Consciousness personalities and focuses a predominantly African eye on Black Consciousness in politics land women power art music and religion Onkgopotse Tiro Vuyelwa Mashalaba Winnie Madikizela Mandela Assata Shakur Marcus Garvey Neville Alexander Thomas Sankara Malcolm X Don Mattera Keorapetse Kgositsile W E B DuBois Walter Rodney Mongane Wally Serote Ready D and Zola are among the many bold minds included in this amalgam of facts ideas and images Strengthening Argentina's Integration into the Global Economy Martha Martínez Licetti, Mariana Iootty, Tanja Goodwin, José Signoret, 2018-05-14 Integration into global markets can improve the efficiency of the Argentinian economy providing opportunities for private investment to flourish and for the associated benefits to accrue to consumers Among many policies that are important for integrating into the global economy particularly relevant are trade investment and competition policies They all share a common attribute the capacity to shape the incentives of firms to improve resource allocation and to strengthen productivity while integrating into international markets Once properly combined investment trade and competition policies have mutually reinforcing relationships in the sense that growth dividends stemming from reforms in one policy area are reinforced when properly combined with reforms in the other two Against this backdrop this report follows a three pronged approach It presents a set of robust empirical analyses drawing from both general and partial equilibrium exercises to assess the potential impacts from trade competition and investment policy reforms. It offers a new comparative review of international experience with structural microeconomic reform programs to bring insights for Argentina's design and sequencing of such reforms. Finally, it presents individual reform recommendations for each institution in charge of the three respective policy areas in an integrated step by step framework from the firm perspective to illustrate the critical challenges to investment and internationalization for Argentinian firms.

Sociology in South Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology. Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research, it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio-political context. With the support of historical and scientometric data, it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature, direction and foci of sociological research in the country. The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines. It was, however, able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement. This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa.

Competition and Cooperation in Social and Political Sciences Isbandi Rukminto Adi, Rochman Achwan, 2017-12-01 The book contains essays on current issues in Social and Political Sciences such as the issues of governance and social order, social development and community development, global challenges and inequality, civil society and social movement, IT based community and social transformation, poverty alleviation and corporate social responsibility and gender issues. Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of social and political development. Therefore, this book covers areas that have been traditionally known as the social and political areas such as communication studies, political studies, governance studies, criminology, sociology, social welfare, anthropology and international relations.

Interregionalism and the Americas Andreas Falke, Gian Luca Gardini, Simon Koschut, 2018-10-15 This book addresses the question of how the American continent engages with various forms of interregionalism, including how different regions within the Americas deal with other regions of the world as well as how they relate among themselves. The presence of different political, economic and cultural sub-regions within the Americas makes the continent a perfect setting to explore differences and commonalities in the western hemisphere's relationship with other regions across the globe. Interregionalism and the Americas tackles three unifying questions: First, what type and understanding of interregionalism characterize the Americas' way to interregionalism, if any? Second, is summitry ultimately the major visible feature of interregionalism in the Americas and beyond? Third, is there anything typical or characteristic in the way in which the Americas engage with interregionalism? This book contributes both to the theoretical debates about interregionalism and to the empirical understanding of the phenomenon and makes a compelling case to strengthen the inter-

American system and to advance a trilateral interregionalism mechanism between North America Latin America and Europe to stand up for their common values norms and preferred international order SME Policy Index: Eastern Partner Countries 2020 Assessing the Implementation of the Small Business Act for Europe OECD,European Union,European Training Foundation,European Bank for Reconstruction and Development,2020-03-17 This report marks the third edition in this series following assessments in 2012 and 2016 It provides a comprehensive overview of the state of play in the implementation of the ten SBA principles and monitors progress made since 2016 It also identifies remaining challenges affecting SMEs in the Eastern Partnership EaP countries and provides recommendations to address them based on EU and international good practice examples Recasting Workers' Power Edward Webster,Lynford Dor,2023-07-17 Much of the debate on the future of work has focused on responses to technological trends in the Global North with little evidence on how these trends are impacting work and workers in the Global South Drawing on a rich selection of ethnographic studies of precarious work in Africa this innovative book discusses how globalisation and digitalisation are drivers for structural change and examines their implications for labour Bringing together global labour studies and inequality studies it explores the role of digital technology in new business models and ways in which digitalisation can be harnessed for counter mobilisation by the new worker
