Citizenship Utopias in the Global South Henri Onodera, Martta Kaskinen, Eija Ranta, 2025-01-23 Citizenship Utopias in the Global South is an edited collection of empirical research that explores emergent forms of activism in Africa Asia and Latin America in times of multiple crises At the intersection of hope and disillusionment the diverse and thought provoking chapters investigate emerging forms of activism in the Global South including youth activisms anti racism struggles feminist initiatives online dissent and Indigenous movements In the 2020s many parts of the world are witnessing contradictory processes of popular claims to rights livelihoods and social justice and subsequent forms of populist authoritarianism and the securitization of civil society Previously hopeful calls for dignity democracy and social justice through protesting strikes civil society campaigns legal reforms and elections for example have been met with disdain and civic disengagement This book investigates the re imagination and pursuit of citizen activism in such times of popular disillusionment It explores citizenship utopias as social imaginaries that are enacted and that articulate an ideal social order or democratic polity with ideal forms of experiencing citizenship Its chapters interrogate conventional approaches to citizenship by introducing a nuanced and empirically grounded exploration of the complex ways in which people experience negotiate and engage in the societal changes that they aspire towards The examination of citizenship utopias outlines contemporary signals for transformative futures and their possibilities The book undertakes a fresh effort at contributing to the shifting terrain of critical development studies political anthropology political sociology and decolonising scholarship by engaging in discussions about citizenship activism disillusionment and future societal alternatives in times of multiple global challenges The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney, Pam Christie, 2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguaging It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces

The Improviser's Classroom Daniel Fischlin, Mark Lomanno, 2025-01-17 The Improviser's Classroom foregrounds how improvisation can facilitate the emergence of pedagogical approaches in which research performance and activism are interactive and cross referential while challenging orthodoxies of educational practice and institutional mandate

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze ,Asheel Singh ,Suzall Timm ,2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum

Indonesia in the New World Arianto A. Patunru,Mari Pangestu,M Chatib Basri,2018-05-30 Globalisation is more complex than ever The effects of the global financial crisis and increased inequality have spurred anti globalisation sentiment in many countries and encouraged the adoption of populist and inward looking policies This has led to some surprising results Duterte Brexit and Trump to name a few In Indonesia the disappointment with globalisation has led to rising protectionism a rejection of foreign interference in the name of nationalism and economic policies dominated by calls for self sufficiency Meanwhile human trafficking and the abuse of migrant workers show the dark side of globalisation In this volume leading experts explore key issues around globalisation nationalism and sovereignty in Indonesia Topics include the history of Indonesia s engagement with the world Indonesia s stance on the South China Sea and the re emergence of nationalism The book also examines the impact of globalisation on poverty and inequality labour markets and people especially women
