Women Citizenship And Difference Postcolonial Encounters:

Handbook on the Geographies of Globalization Robert C. Kloosterman, Virginie Mamadouh, Pieter Terhorst, 2018-11-30

Processes of globalization have changed the world in many often fundamental ways Increasingly these processes are being debated and contested This Handbook offers a timely rich as well as critical panorama of these multifaceted processes with up to date chapters by renowned specialists from many countries It comprises chapters on the historical background of globalization different geographical perspectives including world systems analysis and geopolitics the geographies of flows of people goods and services and capital and the geographies of places including global cities clusters port cities and the impact of climate change

Beyond Mothering Earth Sherilyn Macgregor, 2011-11-01 Women s environmental activism is often described in maternalist terms as if motherhood and caring for the environment go hand in hand While feminists celebrate this connection women and all those who care for people and environments are facing increasing burdens and decreasing time for civic engagement In Beyond Mothering Earth MacGregor argues that celebrations of earthcare as women s unique contribution to the search for sustainability often neglect to consider the importance of politics and citizenship in women s lives Drawing on interviews with women who juggle private caring with civic engagement in quality of life concerns she proposes an alternative a project of feminist ecological citizenship that affirms the practice of citizenship as an intrinsically valuable activity while recognizing the foundational aspects of caring labour and natural processes that allow its specificity to flourish Beyond Mothering Earth provides an original and empirically grounded understanding of women s involvement in quality of life activism and an analysis of citizenship that makes an important contribution to contemporary discussions of green politics globalization neoliberalism and democratic justice It will be of value to scholars and activists interested in the politics of environmental sustainability and the shifting meanings of citizenship in an increasingly vulnerable world

Constructing Democracy in Transitioning Societies of Africa S. Wing, 2008-04-28 This book explores the process by which constitutions and democratic institutions are constructed Wing focuses on how innovative constitutional dialogues involving participation negotiation and recognition of groups previously excluded from political decision making may be the key to a legitimate constitution

Democracy's Angels Kristina R. Llewellyn, 2012 A groundbreaking study of the limits that democratic ideals placed on the work of women teachers

Transatlantic Conversations Mary Evans, 2016-02-24 The second wave of feminism which challenged and changed many assumptions about the world in which we live was a product of various western cultures with no single country possessing a monopoly on the writing of the texts that became the canonical statements of the new feminism Though many of the contributions to feminist scholarship that went on to become internationally significant hailed from Europe and the United States these works were often formed within the context of local debates and framed within traditions of feminism and other political engagements specific to these nations Transatlantic Conversations explores the differences yielded by such conditions and their consequences for the meaning of feminism Examining the meaning and implications of the different ways in which various shared categories have been treated on both sides of the Atlantic this volume both analyses differences within feminism and provides a framework for the wider discussion of what is sometimes assumed to be the homogeneity of The West With leading scholars from either side of the Atlantic presenting brand new work Transatlantic Conversations suggests directions for future research which will be of interest to scholars of feminism gender studies sociology political science and international relations geography and cultural studies as well as anyone concerned with the ways in which the different political and intellectual traditions of Europe and the US have shaped current political and intellectual debates

Young Children's Community Building in Action

Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and Māori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing being doing and relating

Loss and Liquid Citizenship in Europe

Ulrike M. Vieten, 2025-06-06 Loss and Liquid Citizenship in Europe offers a means of understanding how experiences of loss intersect with discourses of migration and citizenship to affect feelings of belonging with respect to host communities and newcomers Adopting a decolonial and intersectional perspective it examines the condition of postmigration regarding it as a space of social cultural and political transformation In doing so it questions the dominant binary in terms of both legal distinctions and socio cultural distinctions between settled majorities and migrating minorities Confronted with the spread of a neo populist far right political agenda across the world this book provides new insights into ways in which we might reconceptualise a vision of social inclusion for both majorities and minorities on the move As such it will appeal to scholars and students across the social sciences with interests in migration and diaspora citizenship and belonging

Acts of Belonging in Modern

Societies Ilgın Yörükoğlu, 2020-07-01 This book examines the ways in which the need to belong manifests itself in the post 9/11 world from a cross disciplinary perspective Using queer Turkish women in Berlin as its subjects the book shows how individuals with seemingly contradictory belongings develop strategies of emotional survival in the face of conflict which Yorukoglu terms acts of belonging It studies the impact of populist discourses on minorities exploring concepts such as security integration sexual tolerance and cohesion within a causal relationship Questioning this assumed relationship the book proposes an alternative approach to study belonging Acts Of Belonging in Modern Societies supports the empirical research behind the argument that cohesion is not a sine qua non of belonging These acts allow the individual to claim belonging in spite of possible differences The book provides evocative case studies to reveal the affective dynamic complex nature of human connectedness Negotiating in/visibility Amelia Bonea,Irina Nastasa-Matei,2025-08-05 This volume brings together scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds to discuss how women contributed to the making pedagogy institutionalisation and communication of scientific knowledge in the twentieth century and to reflect on the theoretical and methodological challenges of documenting such hidden contributions Featuring examples from China former Czechoslovakia Greece Hungary India Japan Romania the United Kingdom and the United States the contributors discuss women s engagement with science across different institutional and non institutional sites ranging from the laboratory and the school to the clinic the home and the media The volume moves beyond the professional scientist model to enlarge our understanding of women s participation in twentieth century science and document the complex combination of factors that rendered such contributions in visible to contemporaries and future generations Gendering Ethnicity Lori Handrahan,2018-10-24 Democracy anticipated by American and other Western powers to prevent economic chaos and political conflict within and among states is not evolving as expected This research argues that part of the failure resides in United States democracy assistance s inadequate consideration of gender within democracy programming
