Levin, Hal A. Levin, Caroline Lalive Carmichael, Sarah Coleman, 2014-10-21 Compilation of eleven hundred quotations from seven hundred well known and accomplished women including world leaders Olympians physicians athletes actors artists executives explorers adventurers and authors Sources of all quotations are cited Coping with Life Crises Rudolf Moos, 2013-12-20 This book examines new developments in the area of human competence and coping behavior It sets forth a conceptual framework that considers the interplay between environmental contexts and personal resources and their impact on how individuals cope with life transitions and crises. The selections cover the tasks confronted in varied life crises and describe the coping strategies employed in managing them. The material identifies the long term effects of such life events as divorce and bereavement as well as the way in which these stressors can promote personal growth and maturity. The book contains a broad selection of recent literature on coping and adaptation, integrative commentaries that provide the background for each of the areas as well as conceptual linkages among them and an introductory overview that presents a general perspective on human competence and coping. Illustrative case examples are included. The first part of the book is organized chronologically according to developmental life transitions confronted by many people from the childhood years through adolescence, career choice and parenthood, divorce and remarriage, middle age and retirement and death and bereavement. The second part covers unusual life crises and other hazards that typically involve extreme stress such as man-made and natural disasters and terrorism. The book highlights effective coping behavior among healthy individuals rather than psychological breakdown and psychiatric symptoms. The emphasis is on successful adaptation, the ability to cope with life transitions and crises and the process by which such

Chrysalis: A Memoir My Life Beyond the Cage of Scoliosis Human Aging Paul W. Foos, M. Cherie Clark, 2016-01-08

This text offers a readable and friendly presentation of the important methods, findings and theories of human aging while actively involving the reader in meaningful exercises and critical thinking. Students are repeatedly challenged to apply information in the text to the older adults in their own lives. Specifically, suggestions for enhancing the lives of their older relatives are offered and encouraged. These include guidelines for discussions they might have regarding social, emotional and environmental changes as well as encouraging intellectual and social interaction. In this Edition, emphasis on the science of the study of aging and why questions in aging are difficult to answer, how social scientists attempt to handle such difficulties and the successes and failures social scientists have had thus far in answering those questions. The text also demonstrates how current research findings are now being applied in the real world and or how they might be applied in the future. Cross cultural comparisons and ethnic group comparisons are included wherever possible. Each chapter begins with Senior View which introduces students to a real person and gives them a chance to hear what older adults think and say about important issues related to the chapter and a chance to compare those opinions to the research findings. Each chapter ends with Making Choices emphasizing the important behavioral, emotional and social choices that students can make now to prolong a healthy, happy life. Chapter Projects offer the opportunity for active learning as students investigate for themselves an issue related to the chapter. Instructors can expand these projects for students who want to learn more or for independent study. Focus on Aging boxes compliment the material in the text providing additional insight and examples and encouraging critical thinking. Every chapter includes discussion questions, study questions, chapter
