The Role of Corporate Sustainability in Asian Development Gilbert Lenssen, Jay Hyuk Rhee, Fabien

Martinez, 2017-05-11 This book examines the challenges faced by seven multinational companies Intel Lenovo Samsung Electronics ZTE BMW Hyundai Motor Company Mahindra and Mahindra in their endeavour to contribute to the economic environmental and social development of Asia The lessons learned from the examination of these business practices may directly contribute to an increase in the practice of sustainable management and may as such contribute to positive economic environmental and social impact of companies in this region The cases are highly relevant for management theoreticians seeking to deepen our understanding of corporate sustainability in an area where scholars practitioners and policy makers can expect new questions problems and challenges in the years ahead The book is also of high interest to policy review agencies policy makers and welfare economists seeking to support the development of a comprehensive sustainability framework for managing social and environmental issues in the context of Asia The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Economic Ethics Albino Barrera, Roy C. Amore, 2024 This innovative collection of essays draws together and compares the teachings of world and regional religions on the subject of economic morality The East Asian Challenge for Democracy

Daniel A. Bell, Chenyang Li, 2013-08-12 The rise of China along with problems of governance in democratic countries has reinvigorated the theory of political meritocracy But what is the theory of political meritocracy and how can it set standards for evaluating political progress and regress To help answer these questions this volume gathers a series of commissioned research papers from an interdisciplinary group of leading philosophers historians and social scientists The result is the first book in decades to examine the rise or revival of political meritocracy and what it will mean for political developments in China and the rest of the world Despite its limitations meritocracy has contributed much to human flourishing in East Asia and beyond and will continue to do so in the future This book is essential reading for those who wish to further the debate and perhaps even help to implement desirable forms of political change Institutional Islamic Economics and Finance

Ahsan Shafiq, 2022-03-30 Institutional economics claims that institutions and policies rather than the size of labour force technology or capital investment are pivotal for growth or under development In this regard there are two kinds of institutions external institutions expressed in the form of laws organisations regulations companies banks and the like and internal institutions which are found in the hearts and consciences of individuals Against this backdrop this book acquaints readers with the basic concepts related to institutional economics It then brings to light the theoretical concepts related to the institutional perspectives on Islamic economics particularly highlighting areas where Islamic economic institutions lay at the crossroads with conventional ones The book also reflects upon the organisational arrangements that comply with the basic tenets of Islamic institutional economics Further it brings a collection of real world case studies into discussion to show the models of Islamic institutions that are pragmatic in today's business environment The book contains novel dimensions on the subject includes conceptual debates as well as practical examples and explores hot topics such as waqf and fintech from an Islamic perspective This is the first book to exclusively cover this topic and is written by well known and respected international economists from the field Since the book is written in an accessible style and the concepts are expressed in plain language it will find an audience among academics researchers and students in economics and Islamic economic studies as well as policymakers and professionals engaged in the Islamic finance industry seeking to make their services and products conform to an Islamic institutional perspective

Walking the Talk? Rob van Tulder, Birgitte Grøgaard, Randi Lunnan, 2024-05-16 Politicians and businesses alike agree that something must be done about the environment the question is what how when and by whom We ask are we actually walking the talk Climate Change and Social Responsibility Rubee Singh, David Crowther, Amit Joshi, Vikas Kumar, 2025-03-18 Climate Change and Social Responsibility explores the complex relationships between climate change and social responsibility offering a unique blend of historical context future perspectives and innovative solutions

Business Ethics in East Asia Chris Rowley, Ingyu Oh, 2018-07-26 For organisations and management the role of business ethics is of key importance but to what extent business ethics are actually new or fashionable or universally applicable are interesting questions Asia has been the site of contests between competing economic and ethical views of how economic norms and institutions are organized This book examines the evolutionary similarities and differences of institutionalizing business ethics in Asia in a historical context and in comparison to better explored business ethics literature both empirically and theoretically This collection uses both historical and contemporary cases in Japan Korea and China to show that these countries have tried to balance their traditional business ethics norms and values with those that have been introduced from the West Underpinning the case studies is the fact that these countries have historically pursued ethical mandates in running private corporations although corruptive practices were also rampant during different historical periods Proceedings of The 17th East Asian-Pacific Conference on Structural Engineering and Construction, 2022 Guoqing Geng, Xudong Qian, Leong Hien Poh, Sze Dai Pang, 2023-03-13 This book presents articles from The 17th East Asian Pacific Conference on Structural Engineering and Construction 2022 organized by National University of Singapore These peer reviewed articles authored by professional engineers academics and researchers highlight the recent research and developments in structural engineering and construction embracing the theme Towards a Resilient and Sustainable City The papers presented in this proceeding provide in depth discussions with key insights into the future research development and engineering translation in structural engineering and construction Human Rights and Ethics: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2014-09-30

In today's increasingly interconnected and global society the protection of basic liberties is an important consideration in public policy and international relations Profitable social interactions can begin only when a foundation of trust has been laid between two parties Human Rights and Ethics Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications considers some of the most important issues in the ethics of human interaction whether in business politics or science and technology Covering issues such as cybercrime bioethics medical care and corporate leadership this four volume reference work will serve as a crucial resource for leaders innovators educators and other personnel living and working in the modern world
