No Delusion Thomas Crean,2011-02-01 Richard Dawkins biologist and best selling author claims that belief in God is a delusion and that religion harms society Dawkins contends that he has reason and evidence on his side and he dismisses faith as unfounded even irrational Dominican Thomas Crean tackles Dawkins claims head on He presents straightforward arguments for God s existence and he uses reason and evidence to defend such things as miracles and the authority of the Bible He also shows how God is important for a coherent understanding of morality and why Dawkins approach winds up reducing morality to the individual s subjective likes and dislikes By demonstrating how Dawkins criticisms rest on misunderstandings superficial readings poor argumentation a lack of historical awareness and not a little prejudice Crean reveals Dawkins to be out of his philosophical and theological depth and his case against God to be fundamentally flawed

Burning Desire Paul Linke,2020-08-19 The book provides some of the information everyone is unconsciously looking for It mentions subjects only a philosopher would know about and more It provides an idea to change the age old belief that there is not enough to go around and therefore we war about the most fundamental resources we can find on Earth The book explains to the best of my knowledge that the universe is a giving entity and all we have to do is learn how this is possible This giving entity is fundamentally two particles in union which is a self contained unit at every scale This union is a dynamic entity which looks like a Torus that generates everything Ancient arts like sacred geometry and others are testimony that there is a fundamental geometric structure in all things and the book highlights this sacred structure known as the Metatrons Cube which is governed by a conscious mind that generates all physical things we are so familiar with It also mentions motion which relates to the golden ratio and how algorithmic functions can explain some of the infinite possibilities we are confronted with
