to a part of post apartheid South Africa we fear to contemplate Midlands is about the midlands of the heart and mind the midlands between possession and dispossession the midlands between the past and present myth and reality Midlands is a tour de force of investigative journalism Fruit Of A Poisoned Tree Antony Albekker,2011-02-08 In June 2005 Fred van der Vyver a young actuary and the son of a wealthy Eastern Cape farming family was charged with murdering his girlfriend Inge Lotz allegedly bludgeoning her to death with a hammer as she lay on a couch in her lounge The case against Van der Vyver seemed overwhelming His behaviour at the time of the murder appeared suspicious and incriminating and a letter penned by Inge on the morning of her death suggested that the two had been fighting But it was forensic evidence that seemed to prove his guilt his fingerprints were found at the scene one of his shoes was matched to a blood stain on the bathroom floor and traces of blood were found on an ornamental hammer that had been given to him by the victim s parents And yet in one of the most sensational and controversial murder trials in South African legal history Van der Vyver s lawyers sought to turn the table on the police accusing them of fabricating evidence and lying to the judge In Fruit of a Poisoned Tree A True Story of Murder and the Miscarriage of Justice prize winning author Antony Albekker takes you into the heart of the epic courtroom battle Albekker s eye witness account of the trial presents the reader with all the evidence and testimony of the trial while also placing it in the context of a society and a justice system that are being stretched to breaking point A Country At War With Itself Antony Albekker,2010-09-13 Crime is tearing South Africa apart Whether it is hijacking or rape a home robbery or a husband s explosion of rage violence is so common that few lives have been left untouched by it The result is a society deformed by its fears Closeted behind locked doors and high walls panic buttons at the ready members of the middle class live lives haunted by fear The poor who are both more likely to be victimised and less able to secure themselves are just as traumatised A Country at War with Itself is a penetrating exploration of South Africa s crime problem Getting behind the statistics to offer a sober and sobering account of the scale of the problem and its evolution it describes how government has sometimes sought to deal with the crisis and sometimes sought to deny its existence The book ends with some suggestions of what needs to be done to deal with this scourge The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling,2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people s ways of thinking and writing Reviewing Imperial Conflicts Cristina Baptista,Ana Cristina Mendes,2014-03-26 This volume of essays investigates across a wide range of texts and with an emphasis on the notion of conflict the various forms objects and modes of circulation that sustained the European civilizing mission At the heart of this volume are two controversial and conflicting papers authored by Robert JC Young and Bernard Porter around which other researchers come together to complement the debate and address some of the thorny issues that arise from reviewing colonial and postcolonial conflicts Under the aegis of history and cultural studies as well as film studies the contributors in this collection share the common purpose of reviewing imperial conflicts while arguing for their own research agendas From opposition and conflict new perspectives on those cultural processes within the particular context of the British Empire are gained
