Law and the Question of the Animal Yoriko Otomo, Edward Mussawir, 2013-02-11 This book addresses the problem of animal life in terms that go beyond the usual extension of liberal rights to animals The discourse of animal rights is one that increasingly occupies the political ethical and intellectual terrain of modern society But although the question of the status of animals holds an important place within a range of civil political and technological disciplines the issue of rights in relation to animals usually rehearses the familiar perspectives of legal moral and humanist philosophy Animal law is fast becoming a topic of significant contemporary interest and discussion This burgeoning interest has not however been matched by renewed inquiry into the jurisprudential frames and methods for the treatment of animals in law nor the philosophical issue of the human and the animal that lies at law's foundation Responding to this interest Law and the Question of the Animal A Critical Jurisprudence brings together leading and emerging critical legal theorists to address the question of animality in relation to law's foundations practices and traditions of thought In so doing it engages a surprisingly underdeveloped aspect of the moral philosophies of animal rights namely their juridical register and existence How does animal law alter our juridical image of personality or personhood How do the technologies of law intersect with the technologies that invent create and manage animal life And how might the ethical ontological and ceremonial relation between humans and animals be linked to a common source or experience of law

The Wolf Vet: Buck Moon Cleo Mercer, 101-01-01 Zoey Cooper didn't choose to become a werewolf. But as a vet she couldn't help but to try to save a wounded wolf. In the rugged Black Hills no good deed goes unpunished. She wasn't just turned by a werewolf, she was given a deadly virus in the process. The other packs want her neutralized but with the cure just within reach Zoey isn't ready to lay down for anyone. Not even her own mate. Living or dead Zoey isn't sure where Peter is. She isn't sure who's side Peter is even on his own pack or hers. But she isn't alone. She's got her boxer turned wolf ex on one side and the straight laced sheriff gone wild on the other side. Time is running out. Zoey must prove she has the cure before the other packs close in. With the weight of countless lives on her shoulders love seems of little consequence. Especially when her feelings are so muddled between three men she never expected to fall for.

Electric Edwardians Vanessa Toulmin, 2019-07-25 Electric Edwardians presents a stunning visual record of the films of Sagar Mitchell and James Kenyon combined with an illuminating discussion of the films and the social context of their production by Vanessa Toulmin, a leading authority on the collection. Advertised as local films for local people, the films of Mitchell and Kenyon were commissioned by travelling exhibitors in the early twentieth century for screening in town halls, village fetes and local fairs. Audiences paid to see their neighbours, families and themselves on the screen, glimpsed at work and at play. This attractive volume includes over 200 illustrations drawn from the Mitchell and Kenyon collection as well as contemporary posters and handbills from the National Fairground Archive. Vanessa Toulmin's lucid accompanying text provides an introduction to the work of the M K company, the showmen who commissioned their films and their place in early British cinema. Focusing on major themes such as Leisure and Recreation, Sport, Industry, the Boer War and the City, Toulmin explores how the M K collection deepens our understanding of these key aspects of Edwardian life.
