Gloria L. Cronin, Alan L. Berger

Without Feathers Getting Even And Side Effects:

The Films of Woody Allen Charles L. P. Silet, 2006 From What's Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen's work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen Critical Essays Charles L P Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen's work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen's repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen's Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor particularly American film humor but also Allen's broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen's most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen's body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America's most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy

Seems Like Old Times Britta Feyerabend, 2009 Woody Allen is one of America's most prolific authors actors and auteur film directors His oeuvre which spans five decades has always been marked by a postmodern play with conventions experimental techniques and explorations of the status quo of modern urban lives Yet Woody Allen is also a nostalgic who makes the history of his nation his people and his individual subjects the constant theme of his work Whether cryogenically frozen Miles Monroe wakes up in the future only to misinform scientists about the past whether stand up comedian Alvy Singer reminisces his relationship to Annie Hall or whether ophthalmologist Judah Rosenthal is tormented by his memory of his Jewish rabbinical father after having had his girlfriend killed the past whether personal or communal is always an integral part of Allen's characterizations and plots Contrary to the assumption that postmodernity is necessarily linked to the future only and negates all history the present study argues that postmodern subjects very much depend on an active evaluation of the past and that through the lens of history present crises and traumata can be overcome In this way nostalgia manages to bring history back into postmodernism

Side Effects Woody Allen, 1986-09-12 A humor classic by one of the funniest writers today SIDE EFFECTS is a treat for all those who know his work and those just discovering how gifted he is Included here are such classics as REMEMBERING NEEDLEMAN THE KUGELMASS EPISODE a new sory called CONFESSIONS OF A BUGLAR and more
