Woman Between Mirrors:

Woman Between Mirrors Helena Parente Cunha,1992 Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard,2009-10-01

This exploration of women's autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres: testimonio, metafiction, and the family saga as the story of a nation. What makes Laura J. Beard's work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions. Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoranksy of Argentina; the family sagas explored are by Ana María Shua and Nilda Piñón of Argentina and Brazil respectively; and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia. In these texts, Beard terms genres of resistance: women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences. The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women's autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter-American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross-cultural approaches. Acts of Narrative Resistance addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography, comparative literature, and women's studies and in inter-American, Latin American, and Native American studies.

Citizen Bacchae Barbara Goff,2004-06-14 What activities did the women of ancient Greece perform in the sphere of ritual, and what were the meanings of such activities for them and their culture? By offering answers to these questions, this study aims to recover and reconstruct an important dimension of the lived experience of ancient Greek women. A comprehensive and sophisticated investigation of the ritual roles of women in ancient Greece, it draws on a wide range of evidence from across the Greek world, including literary and historical texts, inscriptions, and vase paintings, to assemble a portrait of women as religious and cultural agents despite the ideals of seclusion within the home and exclusion from public arenas that we know restricted their lives. As she builds a picture of the extent and diversity of women's ritual activity, Barbara Goff shows that they were entrusted with some of the most important processes by which the community guaranteed its welfare. She examines the ways in which women's ritual activity addressed issues of sexuality and civic participation, showing that ritual could offer women genuinely alternative roles and identities even while it worked to produce wives and mothers who functioned well in this male-dominated society. Moving to more speculative analysis, she discusses the possibility of a women's subculture focused on ritual and investigates the significance of ritual in women's poetry and vase paintings that depict women. She also includes a substantial exploration of the representation of women as ritual agents in fifth-century Athenian drama.

Violence and the Female Imagination Paula Ruth Gilbert,2006-03-31 In the past twenty years, Quebec women writers, including Aline Chamberland, Claire D'Suzanne, Jacob, and Hélène Rioux, have created female characters who are fascinated with bold sexual actions and language, cruelty, and violence at times culminating in infanticide and serial killing. Paula Ruth Gilbert argues that these Quebec feminist writers are re-framing gender. Violence and the Female Imagination explores whether these imagined women are striking out at an external other or harming themselves through acts of self destruction and depression Gilbert examines the degree to which women are imitating men in the outward direction of their anger and hostility and suggests that such tough women may be mocking men in their macho exploits of sexuality and violence She illustrates the ways in which Quebec female authors are feminizing violence or re envisioning gender in North American culture Gilbert bridges methodological gaps and integrates history sociology literary theory feminist theory and other disciplinary approaches to provide a framework for the discussion of important ethical and aesthetic questions

Gender, Discourse, and Desire in Twentieth-Century Brazilian Women's Literature Cristina Ferreira-Pinto, 2004-02-01 This study by Cristina Ferreira Pinto explores the poetic and narrative strategies twentieth century Brazilian women writers use to achieve new forms of representation of the female body sexuality and desire Female writers discussed include Gilka Machado Lygia Fagundes Telles Marcia Denner and Marina Colasanti While creating new forms these writers are also deconstructing cultural myths of femininity and female behavior In order to understand these myths the book also presents new readings of some male authored canonical novels by Jose de Alencar Machado de Assis Manuel Antonio de Almeida and Aluisio Azevedo The specific focus on female sexuality and desire acknowledges the intrinsic link between sexuality and an individual's sense of identity and its importance for female identity given the historical repression of women's bodies and the double standard of morality still pervasive in many Western cultures In the discussion of the strategies Brazilian female poets and fiction writers employ Ferreira Pinto addresses some social and cultural issues that relate to a woman's sense of her own body and sexuality the characterization of women based on racial features and class hierarchy marriage motherhood the silencing of the lesbian subject and aging Ferreira Pinto's analysis is informed by the works of various and diverse critics and theoreticians among them Helene Cixous Teresa De Lauretis Adrienne Rich Gloria Anzaldua Georges Bataille and Wilhelm Reich

Gender in the Mirror Diana Tietjens Meyers, 2002-02-21 Harmful culturally prevalent imagery of feminine sexuality beauty and motherhood constrains women's self determination Gender in the Mirror proposes alternative imagery of feminine sexuality beauty and motherhood and advances an account of feminist discursive politics that takes on the challenge of neutralizing patriarchal imagery

Oshun's Daughters Vanessa K. Valdés, 2014-01-01 Examines the ways in which the inclusion of African diasporic religious practices serves as a transgressive tool in narrative discourses in the Americas Oshun's Daughters examines representations of African diasporic religions from novels and poems written by women in the United States the Spanish Caribbean and Brazil In spite of differences in age language and nationality these women writers all turn to variations of traditional Yoruba religion Santería Regla de Ocha and Candomblé as a source of inspiration for creating portraits of womanhood Within these religious systems binaries that dominate European thought man woman mind body light dark good evil do not function in the same way as the emphasis is not on extremes but on balancing or reconciling these radical differences Involvement with these African diasporic religions thus provides alternative models of womanhood that differ substantially from those found in dominant Western patriarchal culture namely that of virgin asexual wife mother and whore Instead we find images of the sexual woman who enjoys her body without any sense of shame the mother who nurtures her children without sacrificing herself and the warrior woman who actively resists demands that she conform to one dimensional stereotypes of womanhood Norman Rockwell Richard Halpern,2006-10 Publisher description Latin American Women Writers: An Encyclopedia María Claudia André,Eva Paulino Bueno,2014-01-09 Latin American Women Writers An Encyclopedia presents the lives and critical works of over 170 women writers in Latin America between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries This features thematic entries as well as biographies of female writers whose works were originally published in Spanish or Portuguese and who have had an impact on literary political and social studies Focusing on drama poetry and fiction this work includes authors who have published at least three literary texts that have had a significant impact on Latin American literature and culture Each entry is followed by extensive bibliographic references including primary and secondary sources Coverage consists of critical appreciation and analysis of the writers works Brief biographical data is included but the main focus is on the meanings and contexts of the works as well as their cultural and political impact In addition to author entries other themes are explored such as humor in contemporary Latin American fiction lesbian literature in Latin America magic realism or mother images in Latin American literature The aim is to provide a unique thorough scholarly survey of women writers and their works in Latin America This Encyclopedia will be of interest to both to the student of literature as well as to any reader interested in understanding more about Latin American culture literature and how women have represented gender and national issues throughout the centuries Mother Tongue Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton,2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world s Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity s dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature s diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity s global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity s foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West
