Women Communism And Industrialization In Postwar Poland:

Women, Communism, and Industrialization in Postwar Poland Malgorzata Fidelis, 2010-06-21 Malgorzata Fidelis study of female industrial workers in postwar Poland proves that women were central to the making of communist society

Contesting Archives Nupur Chaudhuri, Sherry J. Katz, Mary Elizabeth Perry, 2010 Contesting Archives makes vivid and concrete the way historians must proceed when faced with partial or contradictory sources Historians and anyone interested in how historians work will appreciate the authors strategies for and cautions about unearthing information about women from documents inside and outside the archive Margaret Strobel coeditor of Expanding the Borders of Women's History

Women and Industry in the Balkans Chiara Bonfiglioli, 2019-09-19 Women's emancipation through productive labour was a key tenet of socialist politics in post World War II Yugoslavia Mass industrialisation under Tito led many young women to join traditionally feminised sectors and as a consequence the textile sector grew rapidly fast becoming a gendered symbol of industrialisation consumption and socialist modernity By the 1980s Yugoslavia was one of the world's leading producers of textiles and garments The break up of Yugoslavia in 1991 however resulted in factory closures bankruptcy and layoffs forcing thousands of garment industry workers into precarious and often exploitative private sector jobs Drawing on more than 60 oral history interviews with former and current garment workers as well as workplace periodicals and contemporary press material collected across Croatia Macedonia Serbia Bosnia Herzegovina and Slovenia Women and Industry in the Balkans charts the rise and fall of the Yugoslav textile sector as well as the implications of this post socialist transition for the first time In the process the book explores broader questions about memories of socialism lingering feelings of attachment to the socialist welfare system and the complexity of the post socialist era This is important reading for all scholars working on the history and politics of Yugoslavia and the Balkans oral history memory studies and gender studies The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A. Smith, 2014 Draws on documentation released since the fall of the Soviet Union to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century Women and Yugoslav Partisans Jelena Batinić, 2015-05-12 This book focuses on the mass participation of women in the communist led Yugoslav Partisan resistance during World War II

Reimagining Citizenship in Postwar Europe Rachel Chin, Samuel Clowes Huneke, 2025-02-15 Reimagining Citizenship in Postwar Europe maps the generation and growth of novel forms of belonging in the years after World War II crisscrossing the continent from Madrid to Warsaw and from Athens to London Even as Europe struggled to rebuild new forms of identity statehood and citizenship were beginning to take shape Rachel Chin and Samuel Clowes Huneke bring together a diverse group of scholars to illustrate how citizenship was reimagined in the postwar decades in unusual settings and unexpected ways while highlighting how ordinary citizens living in democratic and authoritarian regimes alike struggled to forge new kinds of belonging through which to assert their human rights and dignity Ultimately Reimagining Citizenship in Postwar Europe contends that if we are to grapple with fraying citizenship in the twenty first century we must first look to when how and why citizenship originated in the calamitous years after World War II

Gender in Twentieth-Century Eastern Europe and the USSR Catherine Baker, 2016-09-29 A concise and accessible introduction to the gender histories of eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the 20th century These essays juxtapose established topics in gender history such as motherhood masculinities work and activism with newer areas such as the history of imprisonment and the transnational history of sexuality By collecting these essays in a single volume Catherine Baker encourages historians to look at gender history across borders and time periods emphasising that evidence and debates from Eastern Europe can inform broader approaches to contemporary gender history

Feminist Transformations and Domestic Violence Activism in Divided Berlin, 1968-2002 Jane Freeland, 2024-07-19 This is the first in depth historical study of feminist activism against domestic violence in divided Berlin between 1968 and 2002 Starting in the 1970s feminists in West and then East Berlin campaigned against domestic violence as a key issue of women s inequality They exposed the harmful gender norms that left women unprotected and vulnerable to abuse in the home and called for this to change Indeed domestic violence has been one of the issues most effectively addressed by the women s movement in Germany Since the first shelter opened in West Berlin in 1976 women s shelters have spread throughout the country and today up to 45 000 women a year turn to emergency housing in Germany with many more accessing helplines and crisis centres Situating domestic violence activism within a broader history of feminism in post war Germany Feminist Transformations traces the evolution of this movement both across political division and reunification and from grassroots campaign to established professionalised social service In doing so it brings the histories of feminism in East and West Berlin together for the first time and explores how feminism successfully changed women s rights in Germany But it also asks what popular and political support for domestic violence activism has meant for feminism and the advancement of women s rights more broadly Examining the trajectory of feminism in Germany Jane Freeland reveals the limitations of gender equality as advancements in women s rights were often built on the reassertion of patriarchal gender roles

Rethinking Gender, Work and Care in a New Europe Triin Roosalu, 2016-04-29 Given the growing importance of Eastern European countries in the development of the EU there is an urgent need to reconstruct the recent dynamic developments in women s work and care in these societies and the socio political determinants thereof Considering their specific cultural economic and historical development it can be assumed that the trends and determinants of women s labour market trajectories in CEE countries differ significantly from those in the other European countries that have frequently made up the basis for established theories in social and labour market research This being the case can standard theoretical approaches mostly modelled on evidence from Western Europe be transferred to the analysis of Eastern European countries This edited collection scrutinises pivotal aspects of women s careers in Eastern Europe providing a detailed overview of trends and determinants of women s employment in Eastern Europe and reflecting critically on theoretical approaches in social and labour market research

Women's Activism and "Second Wave"

Feminism Barbara Molony, Jennifer Nelson, 2017-02-09 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Women's Activism and Second Wave Feminism situates late 20th century feminisms within a global framework of women's activism Its chapters written by leading international scholars demonstrate how issues of heterogeneity transnationalism and intersectionality have transformed understandings of historical feminism It is no longer possible to imagine that feminism has ever fostered an unproblematic sisterhood among women blind to race ethnicity class sexuality nationality and citizenship status The chapters in this collection modify the wave metaphor in some cases and in others re periodize it By studying individual movements they collectively address several themes that advance our understandings of the history of feminism such as the rejection of hegemonic feminism by marginalized feminist groups transnational linkages among women's organizations transnational flows of ideas and transnational migration By analyzing practical activism the chapters in this volume produce new ways of theorizing feminism and new historical perspectives about the activist locations from which feminist politics emerged Including histories of feminisms in the United States Canada South Africa India France Russia Japan Korea Poland and Chile Women's Activism and Second Wave Feminism provides a truly global re appraisal of women's movements in the late 20th century
