Touched Duane C. Scott, 2001-09 Light Touches Alice Barnaby, 2016-11-10 Light Touches Cultural Practices of Illumination 1800 1900 explores how urban lives in the nineteenth century were increasingly touched by innovations in the technologies and aesthetics of illumination Dramatic changes in qualities of light and darkness became acutely palpable to the human sensorium using seeing feeling and being in light were now matters of intense personal and cultural concern Light gave meaningful vitality to the period s material culture and light itself became something to be perceptually consumed Over the course of six chapters Alice Barnaby traces how light was used in amateur artistic pastimes interior design and clothing fashions spectacular public amusements volatile street demonstrations and art gallery designs From these previously unexplored examples a more complex history of light in the period emerges Society s fascination with illumination its desire to work with it and make meaning from it gave rise to a distinctly new set of cultural practices Through these practices unexpected discoveries about the modern world were revealed Light proved to be instrumental in everyday acts of experimentation and imaginative enquiry Barnaby offers an intervention into the dominant scholarly narrative of the nineteenth century which traditionally reads modernity as synonymous with the formation of a spectacular disembodied visuality Light Touches in contrast returns vision to the body and foregrounds the actively felt as well as seen sensation of light In coming to understand these cultural practices of illumination the book reconsiders many assumptions about nineteenth century modernity The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia Philip Lamantia, 2019-10-22 The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia represents the lifework of the most visionary poet of the American postwar generation Philip Lamantia 1927 2005 played a major role in shaping the poetics of both the Beat and the Surrealist movements in the United States First mentored by the San Francisco poet Kenneth Rexroth the teenage Lamantia also came to the attention of the French Surrealist leader Andr Breton who after reading Lamantia s youthful work hailed him as a voice that rises once in a hundred years Later Lamantia went on the road with Jack Kerouac and shared the stage with Allen Ginsberg at the famous Six Gallery reading in San Francisco where Ginsburg first read Howl Throughout his life Lamantia sought to extend and renew the visionary tradition of Romanticism in a distinctly American vernacular drawing on mystical lore and drug experience in the process The Collected Poems gathers not only his published work but also an extensive selection of unpublished or uncollected work the editors have also provided a biographical introduction By Touch and Tongue Jaymie Doyle, 2021-01-05 By Touch and Tongue has captured the art of erotic poetry The exploration of sex in just a few lines while being beautifully written The author of this book has also published Poetry Angels in the Garden of Shadows Dreams in the Garden of Shadows Our United Voices Book 3 With Only a Bridge Between Us Children s Books Ariel s World Book 1 The Curious Fox Ariel s World Book 2 The Witch Ariel s World Book 3 The Fae and a short collection in the new year named my inner secrets From the Author Dear Reader I wrote this as my first erotic poetry book and hope you have the joy of reading this short collection of erotic poems About the Author Jaymie is a poet and writer from Ireland They write about many topics but mostly mythology mental illness love toxic relationships the LGBT community asexuality and spirituality They are the author of Angels in the Garden of Shadows and Dreams in the Garden of Shadows As well as the author of three children s books a children s book series name Ariel s World which include Ariel s World Book 1 The Curious Fox Ariel s World Book 2 The Witch and Ariel s World Book 3 The Fae as well as being an contributing author to Out United Voices Book 3 With Only a Bridge Between Us When they are not writing they create educational resources for the LGBT Community and the Asexual Community running a small YouTube channel and being a volunteer at their local radio athlone community radio And recently have published in 2021 a short collection of poetry named my inner secrets Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman,1991-01-01 Inscribing the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe s and Wilde s homosexuality Nietzsche s madness Heine s refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi s internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer In a frank autobiographical introduction Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with is own sense of difference through artistic creation
